U.S. BREAKS RELATIONS WITH FINLAND

Two Smashing British Columns Tighten Trap On Caen

The War Today . . .

By PRESTON GROVER

Substituting for DeWitt Mackenzie

JAPANESE forces in China have turned a double trick in their drive to Hengyang.

They have half the railway from Hankow to Canton and Hong Kong and have closed one and landed on the doorstep of other American air bases from which we have been harassing Japanese shipping.

Loss of the rail junction also will increase the Chinese demand for more supplies.

Thus two important fronts are linked together, although it is more than 1,300 miles from Hengyang to Myitkyina, scene of the battle for the China supply route.

To get Hengyang in mind, take Shanghai as New York, Hankow as Chicago and Hong Kong as New Orleans. Hengyang then becomes St. Louis.

From Hankow a railroad used to run through Hengyang to Hong Kong. Chinese forces tore up the rails, but the Japanese have been rebuilding it.

IT will give them a complete north-south line through China, which may prove invaluable, for the American fleet is getting menacingly close to coastal shipping lanes, which also may come under bombing from Saipan and the Philippines.

Loss of the American air field at Hengyang, and probable loss of several others nearby, brings up another important problem.

The Japanese can use these fields against the bigger American base at Kunming, 600 miles west of Kweilin, which is the China end of the "hump" airline as well as the Burma road, which Gen. Stilwell is trying to reopen.

The Japanese know all this and are pressing southward toward Canton, while bitterly-resisting efforts to finish the Ledo road. After Myitkyina's capture it still will take several months to link up the new and old roads.

But Myitkyina becomes important at once. It's capture will permit bigger pay loads from India along a lower-level, safer air route.

THE Japanese have ahead of them the painful job of capturing the railroad south of Hengyang, in mountains full of Chinese fighters and with the American air force hammering at every step.

But the Americans have not completed the capture of Myitkyina, either. There are a lot of Japanese there and they bring in reinforcements overland from the south, while Allied reinforcements must come by air or narrow jungle trails which are swamped now by the monsoon.

Each battleground offers the Allies only an uphill fight for big stakes. Somewhere, sometime Allied forces from the Pacific must attempt a landing in China.

There would be a lot fewer casualties then if the part of China now being cut off could be kept in Allied hands.

SALE OF BONDS GAINS IN HOMES

Thursday's 841 Purchases Boost Total To $42,400

C. P. Deemer, personal solicitation chairman, reported progress today in the house-to-house canvass for East Liverpool's Fifth War Loan drive, as Alvin Arner, city chairman, announced that Thursday's sales totaling $42,400 boosted the total to $1,270,977.

The city goal is $2,738,977 — with less than a week to go before the campaign officially ends. There were 841 separate sales yesterday.

Returns were beginning to come in from the home canvass, and Mr. Deemer said three salesmen in the Second ward took in over $15,-000 in pledges last night.

Reports from other areas showed sales of $5,000 and $4,000 and for many smaller denominations. Mr. Deemer expressed every confidence that the sales will meet expectations, and he urged householders to welcome the solicitors.

With a quota of $750 for each East Liverpool man and woman in the armed forces, there still are 2,071 to be financed for the fight, and Mr. Arner urged that everyone "get out and buy that extra Bond, and show our fighters that we are backing them."

Figures for the payroll deductions are just now being received, he said, and these sales will go a long way towards putting the grand total nearer the quota set for the city.

THREE CANNED FOODS RETURN TO POINT LIST

Peas, Tomatoes, Asparagus To Be Affected Sunday

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30 — The office of price administration Thursday night ordered the restoration of ration point values for canned peas, tomatoes and asparagus, effective Sunday, and dropped a broad hint that other vegetables now ration-free may require points again soon.

OPA assigned a value of five points for No. 2 cans of peas and tomatoes. Asparagus goes back on the list at 10 points.

Price Administrator Chester Bowles said the changes are in line with OPA's earlier statement that points would be restored when the remainder of the 1943 pack was cleaned up.

He indicated that the time is near for placing other vegetables back under rationing.

Other processed food changes for the period through July 29 include the return of brandied, spiced and pickled fruits to rationing. They get the same point values as other canned fruits.

Spaghetti sauce and tomato sauce in 8-ounce containers are reduced a point, but vegetable juice combinations in 46-ounce cans get a new value of five points, up from four.

NEW HOLE TORN IN ITALIAN LINE

Eighth Army Batters Nazis; Yanks Also Drives On

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME, June 30—German troops on Italy's west coast, breaking off contact, fled northward yesterday and the Americans, in swift pursuit, reached the vicinity of Cecina, only 20 airline miles south of the port of Livorno (Leghorn), Allied headquarters said today.

American armored forces farther inland stabbed to within seven miles of the historic city of Siena, 31 miles below Florence, and French troops on their right are only 10 miles from the same target.

At the same time strong enemy resistance began cracking under heavy Eighth army attacks and British forces, streaming northward, captured the picturesque Lake Trasimeno town of Castiglione del Lago, which had been a Nazi seaplane base as well as a strong point. It is the site of the famous castle of the Knights of Malta.

Paves Way For Fast Advance

The new break-through, which appears to be paving the way for the fastest advance on the widest front since Field Marshal Albert Kesselring managed to slow down the Allied offensive by great sacrifices, is costing the enemy heavily in men and equipment.

Reverberations of German demolition of bridges and other structures were heard as the Americans streamed up Highway 1 along the west coast toward Livorno and Pisa.

Infantrymen found the little town of Bibonna, five miles southeast of Cecina, cleared of the enemy and by yesterday afternoon they swept on to within 1,500 yards of Cecina.

Only scattered fire was encountered and it appears likely the Americans today are far beyond that point and well on the way to

PRICE, WAGE MEASURE SIGNED BY ROOSEVELT

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—President Roosevelt today signed the bill continuing the price and wage stabilization act for another year to June 30, 1945.

Given final senate and house passage June 21 after a long legislative wrangle over various phases of price control policy, the new law makes several major changes in present pricing, regulatory and enforcement procedures, Administration spokesmen declare, however, that it retains adequate safeguards against inflationary price and wage trends.

One of the principal changes directs OPA to adjust ceilings on "major" textile items to reflect a parity price for raw cotton.

Defined officially as applying to 80 percent of all textiles, this represented an administration compromise to cotton state legislators who had campaigned for a more liberal price formula, guaranteeing also manufacturing costs and a profit to millers.

REDS HAMMER ACROSS RIVER IN MINSK AREA

Reach Last Natural Barrier In Path Of Big Smash For White Russian Capital

By EDDY GILMORE

Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, June 30 — Red army units in force plunged today into the Berezina river northeast of Minsk, while engineers of two Soviet armies hurried pontoons into place for mass crossings of the last natural obstacle before the White Russian capital.

Field dispatches said the first units met stiff fire from strong German forces on the west bank and from artillery positions west of the river, but there are no indications that the retreating Nazis will be able to make a stand here.

71 Nazi Planes Downed

The Russians said 71 Nazi planes were downed in 24 hours.

The biggest crossings were headed by staffs of Gen. Ivan Cherniakovsky's Third White Russian army and Gen. Ivan Bagramian's First Baltic army, all veterans of quick crossings under fire.

Southwest of Minsk, the First White Russian army is moving rapidly up the valley of the Ptich toward Minsk, cracking an important outer defense line of the city. These fighters, leaving the Berezina river far behind them, have opened a gateway down the Gomel-Minsk highway and railway with planes providing a covering such as seldom has been seen in this war.

Great Destruction Reported

The Red army's two-sided outflanking movements — one to the north of Minsk, which already has severed the city's northern railway, and one to the south toward Baranovicze — assumed for the Germans a more serious importance.

The northernmost swing cut beneath Polotsk and reached positions 10 miles from this important communications center, while another group got to points 11 miles from the railway connecting Riga with White Russia.

Troops in this upper corner of White Russia are but 81 miles from the border of the Lithuanian republic, 48 miles from the Latvian republic and 130 from Kaunas, capital of Lithuania.

Correspondents reported scenes of unparalleled destruction of German equipment down the three main roads leading into Minsk.

DEFEATISTS, STRIKERS EXECUTED IN GERMANY

By The Associated Press.

MADRID, June 30—Travelers arriving from the Reich report that defeatists and persons refusing to work in bombed areas of Germany are being executed in considerable numbers.

One person, whose position made official Nazi records available to him, said that between June 8 and June 15 741 Germans and foreign workers were put to death in the Munich region, about 500 in the Essen area and about 1,500 in the Cologne district.

Other informants, although unable to give accurate estimates, said these figures do not appear to be exaggerated.

Bricker Gets Biggest Welcome Of Career On Columbus Return

By The Associated Press.

COLUMBUS, June 30—Gov. John W. Bricker came home from the Republican national convention Thursday night to the most tumultuous welcome of his long political career.

An old-fashioned torch-light parade and political rally greeted the G. O. P. vice presidential nominee here and later virtually every resident of nearby Mt. Sterling turned out for a celebration at his birthplace there.

Thousands lined this city's flarelighted main thoroughfare and cheered as the handsome, whitehaired candidate rode on the back of an open automobile through a storm of confetti.

During the rally in the statehouse square, Bricker promised to work unstintingly "to preserve this beloved land of ours, the finest God ever created, and to help her take her place of leadership among the nations of the world, and to help build peace and good will."

Bricker said he felt a "very serious sense of responsibility" in the forthcoming campaign.

The governor expressed grati-

WAR MAY SHAPE G.O.P. CAMPAIGN

Dewey Completes Meetings With Party's Leaders

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 30—A campaign tailored to the course of the war took form today as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York completed conferences with Republican party leaders and prepared to name his choice for national committee chairman.

The G.O.P. presidential nominee, whose hotel room meetings with committee members and state chairmen kept him up until the early hours of the morning, arranged to address the national committee today.

He is expected to recommend the election of Herbert Brownell Jr., the Dewey gubernatorial campaign manager in 1942. Whether Harrison E. Spangler, present chairman, would be retained in any capacity, apparently has not been determined.

Dewey Proves Good Listener

Dewey did a great deal of listening and not much talking during the night as one delegation of party officials after another called upon him.

But out of these conferences came some definite indications that the Republican campaign strategy will be guided in a large measure by the progress of the war.

Dewey is reported to have been advised by stump speech veterans as former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas that there might be public reaction against the customary special train coast-to-coast tour. This would be reduced and freedom of movement increased if the war appears about to be won in Europe, it was agreed.

There is evidence the Dewey supporters intend to gear their vote-seeking appeals somewhat to the pace President Roosevelt sets, if he is the Democratic nominee.

If the President visits defense plants on inspection trips, as he did in the 1940 campaign, Dewey will feel freer to do the same.

If Roosevelt goes abroad to visit the troops or to confer with Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin during the campaign, there may be a Republican demand for Dewey to fly the ocean, at least to see the fighting men.

Possibility that Roosevelt might invite the Republican nominee to

GERMANS FAIL TO HALT DRIVE ON VITAL BASE

Nearly 6,000 Nazis Killed, 37,000 Captured Since Landings In France

By WES GALLAGHER

Associated Press Staff Writer

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 30—Advance elements of two British columns driving around Caen in opposite directions are within 11 miles of completely encircling the inland French port as the Germans threw large armored forces against the Odon river bridgehead in unsuccessful flank attacks.

From newly-captured Marcelet, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's troops struck due east toward Caen in a thrust that menaces one of the city's main air fields. At last reports, Allied troops were only half a mile from this field.

Thus far the Allies have taken only one important air field in the bridgehead—that at Maupertus near Cherbourg.

Try To Straighten Lines

In the American sector to the west, Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's troops made a series of small attacks southward toward the important road junction of St. Lo in an effort to straighten their lines.

The doughboys also are beating down dwindling resistance on the Cap de la Hague, at the northwestern tip of the Cherbourg peninsula.

American doughboys have killed 5,000 to 6,000 Germans and captured 37,333 since the landings in France, it was announced last night.

A staff officer revealed that the Americans have buried 3,941 enemy dead and that the Germans have buried many of their own.

With the normal ratio of wounded to dead, it appears obvious that the Germans have suffered extremely heavy casualties in trying to stem the American drive from the beaches in the last 24 days.

The supreme command announced that Commodore William Sullivan, one of the foremost salvage experts in the American navy, has been put to work to bring Cherbourg's docking facilities back into operation. He worked at Pearl Harbor, cleared Casablanca and Oran harbors and was one of the directors of the Naples operation.

Japs Claim New Chinese City; Yanks Push Ahead On Saipan

By The Associated Press.

The Tokyo radio today pictured the flaming battle for Hengyang as at its climax and claimed another important Chinese city near the China coast has been overpowered in a hitherto unmentioned campaign.

The China campaign, with its dire threat to Allied air planes, moved to a showdown while the American investment of northern Saipan island settled into a slow, bitter struggle in rugged terrain.

American marines and infantry soldiers surged northward of Mt. Tapotchau at the island's center and cautiously probed through wrecked Garapan, Saipan's capital city.

The Japanese radio said Lishui (Chuchow) in Chekiang province, which fronts on the East China sea, was captured June 26. Lishui, some 400 miles northeast of Heng-yang, is but 60 miles from the coast and has been mentioned by the Japanese as the site of an American air base.

Coupled with yesterday's disclosure that the 14th U. S. air force base at Hengyang had been captured, the Lishui claim revealed more of Japan's great haste to prevent establishment of full-scale

Helsinki's New Tie With Nazis Forces Washington Action

Split Marks End Of Many Efforts In Last Two Years To Make Peace Between Finland And Russia; Hull's Note On Step Handed To Charge d'Affaires

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—The United States today broke relations with Finland because of the new close alliance between the government of that nation and Nazi Germany.

The action was announced with the release of a note from Secretary of State Hull to Alexander Thesleff, charge d'affaires of the Finnish legation here.

The break marks the end of many efforts over a period of more than two years by the United States government to make peace between Finland and Russia.

Hull's note reflected the long and persistent attitude of friendship on the part of the United States toward Finland, saying: "Notwithstanding the esteem in which the American people have held the people of Finland, further relations between the government of the United States and the government of Finland are now impossible."

Finland's War Role Also Emphasized

The note, which was delivered to Thesleff by George T. Summerlin, special assistant to Secretary Hull, also emphasized that the military operations of Finland "have a direct bearing on the success of the Allied effort" to defeat Germany.

The note opened with a quotation of the announcement made by the Finnish government last Tuesday, in which it was stated that German Foreign Minister Von Ribbentrop had been in Helsinki and had given assurance of full military aid to Finland and that complete agreement had been reached between the Finnish government and the German government.

"The Finnish government," Hull's note said, "thus formally has admitted to the world that it now has entered a hard and fast military partnership with Nazi Germany irrevocable throughout the war, for the purpose of fighting the Allies of the United States in alliance with the enemies of the United States.

May Be Last Break

"This action was taken without recourse to the established democratic procedure of Finland and responsibility for the consequences must rest solely on the Finnish government."

This is regarded in diplomatic quarters as probably the last diplomatic break that the United States will make as a result of the international stresses of World War II.

Despite the fact that Finland has been at war with Russia since June 25, 1941, and with Great Britain since Dec. 6, 1941, the United States had maintained relations through several crises with the Finnish government because President Roosevelt particularly had hoped that a friendly attitude on the part of this country might get the Finns to make peace.

GERMAN 'ROBOT' HITS CHILD HOME

Bodies Taken From Debris; Allies Raid Vienna Area

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, June 30—The Germans intensified their blind bombardment of southern England today with robot aerial torpedoes, killing several dozen persons.

The robots were flung across the channel at frequent intervals during the day. A children's hostel, a hostel, shops, homes and office buildings were hit.

Fifty or more men tore at the charred wreckage of the children's hostel with shovels and bare hands, recovering small bodies one by one.

Broken baby carriages, rocking horses, books, shoes and shattered toys were scattered about the garden and grounds of the home. The children had been brought there last March after another hostel had been burned out by incendiary bombs.

Vienna Area Attacked

Another bomb cut into a hotel annex rook causing several deaths. Another smashed small shops and a home, killing several. Six died in another incident. A hit on an office building killed several among passers-by.

In one area where a bomb hit, a great column of smoke boiled up and when it cleared, dead, injured and smashed victims littered the street. A postoffice, a number of buildings and a bus were hit elsewhere and there were casualties.

The Berlin radio said, meanwhile, a big force of fighter-escort-

Argentine War Speech Brings U.S. Envoy Home

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30 — A speech by War Minister Juan Peron of Argentina, in which he urged his country to prepare for an inevitable war, set the stage today for the return this week-end of Ambassador Norman Armour from Buenos Aires.

Peron's speech directing Argentina, to prepare for war was made June 10 at La Plata, Argentina, but received little attention in this country because of the great flood of invasion news. It was released here by the state department and aroused especial interest among American officials.

An authoritative source, who did not permit further identification, interpreted the speech as an attempt to establish that all attempts at lasting peace are doomed to failure.

INNER TUBES DROPPED FROM RATIONING LIST

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30 — The office of price administration today ordered the removal from rationing of all tire inner tubes, effective Saturday.

It also announced that a total of 3,900,000 new passenger car tires have been allocated for rationing in July and August, an increase of 50,000 tires in both months over the June quota.

Inner tube inventories now are sufficiently large to supply the needs of all motorists, OPA said in eliminating the requirement for rationing certificates. Tubes were placed under rationing in January, 1942, along with tires.

The agency also disclosed that an additional allocation of 300,000 new passenger car tires was made to the office of the rubber director in June, bringing the total quota to 1,900,000 tires. For August the allocation is 1,950,000 tires.

5,500 AUTOISTS HERE LACK FEDERAL STAMP

New Stickers Must Be Used Beginning On Saturday

An estimated 5,500 East Liverpool motorists were without their new $5 federal auto stamps today, Postmaster Ralph C. Benedum announced, with the deadline Saturday when the 1944-45 sticker must be displayed.

Sales continued to lag with only 1,600 motorists having bought stamps at the close of business Thursday at the postoffice, but Postmaster Benedum said he looks for a stampede before the deadline tomorrow.

There are approximately 7,300 automobile owners in the city.

More than 7,000 of the $5 stamps were sold last year, Mr. Benedum said. 10,000 were on hand when the stickers went on sale June 5.

Meantime, Corliss Myers, chief deputy internal revenue collector, said there were no applicants for the part-year stamps at his office in the basement of the postoffice. The part-year stickers are obtainable only at the internal revenue office.

JAPAN REPORTS TROOPS OCCUPY NEW CHINA CITY

Battle Heads To Showdown; American Forces Push Forward In Saipan

air power in China, particularly near the coast.

Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault previously has revealed the existence of Allied bases in the sector east of the Hankow-Canton railway, down which the Japanese now are driving.

Seven hundred miles southwest of the Marianas invasion scene, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's bombers supported the Saipan operation by dealing the Nipponese air base of Yap its fifth blow in a week, during which more than 50 Jap planes were destroyed or damaged.

On Saipan, a pocket of Japanese which had been holding out on the southeast tip since the invasion began June 14, was overwhelmed Tuesday, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced in a communique Thursday.

Six miles up the west coast, cautious Yanks probed deeper into shell-shattered Garapan, administrative center of the Marianas. In the mountainous center of the island, other small gains were made.

"Our advance northward is being made against severe resistance," the communique said.

The Yanks underwent another night air attack, during which anti-aircraft guns shot down two raiders.

The Berlin radio last night broadcast a Tokyo dispatch saying Japanese naval planes attacked American fleet units, which included battleships, off Guam, Tinian and Rota Thursday.

Those Marianas islands, each with enemy air bases, have been raided by carrier planes and shelled by warships since Saipan was invaded.

The Tokyo dispatch was not confirmed by official reports, but the Thursday communique listed a knockout blow to the north of Saipan against Pagan island. Returning fliers reported the island's air base had been bombed out.

Chinese troops captured Mienchin, 64 miles from the Allied forces besieging Myitkyina in north Burma. The Chinese are striving to clear the Japanese from Burma road strongholds standing between Myitkyina and China. The Myitkyina siege moved slowly on.

Strong air support helped the British mopping up the remnants of Japan's ill-fated invasion of northeastern India.

THREE FREED AIRMEN BEGIN CANYON CLIMB

Two Rescuers Reach Fliers Trapped For Nine Days

By The Associated Press.

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., June 30—Three army parachutists today are crawling up the precipitous north wall of the Grand Canyon, headed for civilization, after nine days' entrapment on rock-and-water-locked Tonto plateau, deep in the misty recesses of the gorge.

Park service officials and army officers, leveling binoculars across the canyon from the far south rim, are expecting momentarily to see the men and their two volunteer rescuers clamber the last foot to safety.

The fliers bailed out of a temporarily-disabled heavy bomber at 2 a. m. June 21 and landed together miraculously on the mile-long table land.

They were sighted by an army searching plane and later identified as 2nd Lt. Charles Goldbaum of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Flight Officer Maurice J. Cruickshank Jr. of Lawrence, Mass., and Cpl. Roy W. Embanks of Kalispell, Mont.

Three rescue parties, heavily laden with equipment, had failed to reach the men and turned back when Ed Laws, 56, national park ranger, and Dr. A. A. MacRae, expert mountaineer, began descending toward the plateau Wednesday.

They found access to the depths of the chasm through fissures in the rock and reached the airmen's camp yesterday.

One Of Oldest Stores In East Palestine Will Close Up On Saturday

Special To The Review.

EAST PALESTINE, June 30—One of the oldest retail concerns in East Palestine, the Chamberlin and Moore shoe store, will quit business Saturday.

The announcement was made by Thomas W. Moore, who with Horace E. Chamberlin founded the firm in February, 1905. Mr. Chamberlin died in 1943.

Both partners started their mercantile careers as clerks in the store of the former R. S. Chamberlin Co. They began their own business in one room of the building, moving to the present location in 1907 in the then newly-built R. F. Chamberlin block.

Mr. Moore, who was a Republican candidate in the May primaries, said he will devote his time to his flower gardens and "take life easy."

24 CALLED AS JURORS IN $750 DAMAGE CASE

The names of 24 prospective jurors have been drawn in municipal court for the trial next Wednesday involving a claim for $750 damages growing out of an automobile-truck collision last March 10. A full jury of 12 members will hear the case.

The case is that of Clark Bookman of route 2, East Liverpool, against Phillips Ross, also of route 2. The plaintiff charges that his automobile was wrecked when struck by a truck driven by the defendant at the intersection of Anderson blvd. and Park way.

EAGLES LODGE PLANS 'VICTORY RALLY' HERE

Delegates Of 5 Aeries Will Discuss Scrap Drive

Delegates from five aeries, making up District 6 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will assemble in the Eagles home on Broadway Sunday afternoon for what has been termed a patriotic "Victory rally".

The purpose of the meeting, in addition to arousing more interest in the war effort, will be to outline plans for a scrap collection campaign in which members of the lodge will participate.

The principal speaker will be Robert Maxon, representing the state lodge, who will outline plans for the campaign and explain how members of the order can assist in a speedy victory.

Lodges to be represented at the meeting will be Steubenville, Mingo, Toronto, Wellsville and East Liverpool. Albert Noltenmyer is district director, and Thomas Hogan is district chairman. William McMasters is president of East Liverpool aerie, host for the meeting.

NEW CUMBERLAND, June 30—Sgt. Wayne Pitcock, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pitcock, and on duty with the glider infantry, is convalescing from wounds received June 7 during the invasion of Normandy.

Word was received Wednesday by the parents in a telegram from the war department.

The New Cumberland man enlisted in July, 1940, and received his basic training at Ft. Bragg, N. C. He was sent overseas 14 months ago, serving in the Sicilian invasion, and later was transferred to England.

OFFICE FORCE IN MILL VOTES FOR CIO UNION

Special To The Review.

MIDLAND, June 30—Office and clerical employes of the Pittsburgh Crucible Steel Co. of Midland, members of local 3177, voted Thursday to name the CIO United Steelworkers of America as their collective bargaining agency.

The vote, as reported by the national labor relations board of Pittsburgh, showed 165 for the CIO and 43 opposed.

Officers of the new local, named last week, are: Louis Groglode, president; Glenn B. Roberts, vice president; Thomas M. Laughlin, treasurer; Mrs. Gladys Elwood, financial secretary, and William H. Lohn, recording secretary.

NORMANDY

Odon river some five miles southwest of Caen, is being supported by the big guns of the British battleship Rodney, lying off the Allied beaches to the north. The Rodney's guns have a range of 33,000 yards (nearly 19 miles).

Marshal Erwin Rommel, who now is reported rushing strategic reserves to Normandy from both Germany and France, tried to cut off the British Odon salient with one heavy and three smaller counter-attacks, but all were broken up.

Little fighting was reported directly north of Caen, where forward elements stand about two miles from the city's outskirts, but to the northeast British raiders attacked Breville, a mile east of the Orne river and three miles south of its mouth.

Paris Radio Reports Landing

(The Paris radio declared in a broadcast early today that British and Canadian troops had landed on the east bank of the Orne estuary and had captured the port of Cabourg, four miles beyond, but there was no Allied report of operations that far to the eastward.)

A British staff officer told Associated Press War Correspondent Roger D. Greene last night that the Germans are throwing all available armor into a flank attack against the British surge cross the Odon.

The Germans are rushing major reinforcements up from the south, Greene wrote, adding:

"German alarm was reflected sharply by the fact that hitherto the enemy only has moved vehicles forward under cover of darkness because of Allied domination of the skies, whereas today (Thursday), for the first time, Nazi transport was on the move in broad daylight."

More than 100 of these enemy vehicles were shot up by Allied warplanes during the day.

Greene said both flanks of the British corridor across the Orne "now are stoutly secure, but the Germans are showing their teeth from Evrecy to Bougy. . . ."

Last Of Forts Seized

All forts along the Cherbourg breakwater now are in Allied hands. The last gave up when Marauder bombers swooped in at less than 600 feet and cloaked it with high explosives. The Germans began waving white flags as the smoke cleared away.

A naval announcement said destroyers and light coastal forces are keeping a close watch on the channel islands, where two German divisions are believed cut off. British warships are intercepting supply convoys whenever possible.

The islands have big guns capable of shooting up to 40,000 yards. They could shell the Cherbourg peninsula, but could do no great damage since there would be no way for the Germans to observe the fire.

Ages of some 37,000 Germans taken prisoner by the Americans in the Cherbourg peninsula provide strong indication that Hitler may not long be able to continue throwing first-class reserves into his various fronts.

Associated Press War Correspondent Don Whitehead, with the American army, last night quoted a staff officer as saying, after seeing the long lines of prisoners, that five years of war apparently have wiped out the cream of German youth—those from 20 to 28, who normally would form the backbone of any great fighting force.

Most of the Germans taken by the Americans were less than 20 or more than 30 years old.

BRICKER

tude to the home folk for their support in the past and said he is counting on their aid in the future.

"Never have I needed your help and your prayers as they are needed now," he asserted.

He told former neighbors at Mt. Sterling: "It is an unselfish job I'm trying to do — that of preserving the two-party system in America."

At the governor's side during the demonstrations were his wife, Harriet, and their 13-year-old son, Jack. Mrs. Bricker virtually was covered with flowers as bouquet after bouquet was heaped in her arms.

A woman told the governor's wife:

"I'm sorry John didn't make the presidency."

"Yes," replied Mrs. Bricker, "but we're glad it worked out the way it did."

Cleared For Action

THE Republican party has cleared its decks for action. Whatever may be the outcome of the election, the campaign will have brought the party to its finest fighting trim in a political generation.

Gov. Dewey's sweeping nomination for the presidency is symbolic of the party's complete accord. It has enlisted his youth and his fresh approach to public problems to hold out the hope of a revived political spirit to all voters.

As former President Hoover told the convention, the party now passes into the hands of young and vigorous men. Something like that almost happened in Philadelphia four years ago, but the transfer was awkward. Wendell Willkie's nomination to the presidency did not fuse party unity.

The passage of four years—four momentous years—sharpened the political focus. The ultimate issue lying between the political philosophy of President Roosevelt's administration and the opposition is clearer today. It will be even clearer by next November.

For the first time in many years a political party will go into a campaign with a vice presidential candidate who has vastly more than sectional and minority influence. It was plain at the convention that Gov. Bricker's bid for the presidential nomination was rejected only because of circumstances which made Gov. Dewey appear to be the more logical choice. Gov. Bricker is as well qualified for the leadership of the ticket as Gov. Dewey in the opinion of many members of the party. His willingness to step aside for the sake of the party's welfare has increased his already great stature. Here is no Henry W. Wallace, with nothing but the strength imparted by association, but a man who holds strength of his own making in his own right.

Gov. Bricker will step directly from the job he has been doing as the Republican party's ablest spokesman into his new role of co-bearer of the Republican standard. Gov. Dewey, who comes to the campaign fresh, demonstrated Wednesday night in his acceptance speech the power he will bring to the task of presenting the issues of 1944.

"Everything we say or do today and in the future must be devoted to the single purpose of victory," he declared. "Then, when victory is won, we must devote ourselves with equal unity of purpose to re-winning at home the freedom they have won at such desperate cost abroad." That, in brief, is the Dewey platform. And it certainly must be America's platform.

The highest function of a party convention is the rededication of strength for the preservation of principles. The convention in Chicago has performed that function. The convention has stimulated the opposition to the incumbent administration. It has given a fresh lease on life to the two-party system. It has strengthened the determination of its members to fight for their convictions and has attracted the attention of the electorate at large. The party now must stand or fall on what it has done. Its chances of victory are brighter at this point than they have been for 16 years.

Two-Term Proposal

REPETITION in the 1944 platform of its 1940 declaration for a two-term limit on presidential tenure means the Republican party would be obligated, it it wins the election, to work for a constitutional amendment to that effect.

In the event the amendment were not forthcoming, however, the party still would have a great opportunity to restore the tradition of two terms by adhering to it, if that opportunity presented itself. This is an even more important possibility than the possibility of an amendment. It was refusal to scorn the tradition through the years which made it important.

Tradition in such a case can be stronger than law, because respect for tradition connotes respect for principle, whereas respect for law may connote nothing higher than fear of the consequences of a violation. A two-term limit by constitutional amendment would be a weak substitute for a two-term limit by tradition. The tradition has been broken, but it can be restored.

To be sure, there always would be the temptation to disregard it, especially since Mr. Roosevelt's success. But in the long run, it would be far better to risk an occasional lapse than to set up a new law which, if it were broken, could be broken only at the expense of the Constitution, after the fashion of those countries which expect their constitutions to take the rap whenever they conflict with political ambitions.

Withdrawal from present positions is punishable by death. I empower all leaders of every grade to shoot on sight anyone who leaves his post because of cowardice. The hour is serious. Only willpower, readiness for fighting and heroism to the death can help.—German order, captured near Cherbourg.

I suggest that we move surely rather than too swiftly in the building of an international organization which is to provide a permanent framework of peace among nations.—Secretary of the Navy Forrestal.

We are finding now that the German soldier is deteriorating as a fighter and is not what he used to be a year ago.—Yugoslav Partisan Marshal Josip Broz (Tito).

If We Had The Insight To Recognize Close Tie, U. S.-British-French Problems Could Be Solved

By WALTER LIPPMANN

WITH Cherbourg in our hands, the western Allies are no longer on a French beachhead.

They are in France.

The solidarity of our alliance with the Soviet Union, the skill and intelligence of the British-American team, the valor and the martial quality of our new armies, the quality of the French resistance, have been tested and proved.

Mr. Lippmann

These mighty events, as they continue to unfold, now will shape the political decisions which have to be taken during and after the war.

They already have begun to shape them. Our relations with France, which 10 days ago seemed to have sunk to their lowest and meanest point, have taken a decided, and it may even be, a radical turn for the better.

Though we have been unable to reach a formula of agreement with Gen. De Gaulle and the French committee, agreement is developing out of the necessities and the inevitabilities of the situation itself.

For, as a matter of fact, the civil government of liberated French territory is in the hands of the representatives of the committee, and the famous Fighting French general, Joseph Pierre Koenig, has been recognized by Gen. Eisenhower as the commander of all the resistance behind the German lines.

THE importance of these developments can be measured when we remember what was the most cogent reason given for not agreeing in advance to these arrangements.

It was that we had intelligence reports that inside of France there were organized resistance groups, indispensable to the invasion, who did not recognize and would oppose the leadership of Gen. De Gaulle and the authority of the committee.

These reports, of which much has been made in Washington, never were given serious credit by the British and other governments which operate older and more experienced intelligence services in France than we, who are still amateurs in these matters, have been able to improvise.

Gen. Eisenhower cannot afford to be misinformed on a matter of this sort.

He has for his use the combined intelligence services of all the United Nations. He has, moreover, had nearly three weeks to judge the military importance of the French resistance.

It has played a telling part, at frightful risk, in obstructing the German effort to bring up new divisions to attack the beachhead.

A WISE man has said that we must not open a quarrel between the present and the past, lest the future be imperiled.

If we take that injunction to heart in Washington, in Algiers and in London, we still can hope to raise the political relations of France, Britain and America to a plane which is worthy of the heroism and the grandeur of their combined action.

We can do away with the brooding and envenomed suspicions, the smears and the slanders, which are a disgrace to our common cause.

We can do away with them, and we then can go forward together through France into Germany.

For if we can work in harmony where the danger is greatest, it is unbelievable that we should not be able to agree in the security of Washington and of Algiers.

HAVING found that we can agree in practice, even though we could not agree in theory, let us turn our attention from the transient issues to the great relations of France, Britain and America.

What is it that we want of one another, and must have not only now but in the years to come?

We want to make sure that never again shall we become so separated that we can be mortally threatened and defeated one by one.

We know now from the two bitter wars of this century that France, Britain and America, the three leading powers facing the North Atlantic have a common fate and will, no matter what they think they intend to do in time of peace, find themselves allies in any great war where the survival of any one of them is at issue.

That is the rock upon which Anglo-French-American relations henceforth have to be established.

That is the master principle which must guide each of them in its dealings with the others.

If we have the insight to recognize this principle, and the wisdom to adhere to it, no problem is insoluble among us, no dispute is irreconcilable.

What Is An "M.P."

S/Sgt. Oris M. Thorne, author of this article, is a Newell resident whose home is at 211 Washington st. After serving in Alaska, he was returned to the States and for several months has been stationed with a Military Police battalion at Camp Tulelake, Calif., where 18,000 disloyal Japanese are quartered. He wrote: "Many folks do not know the meaning of the letters M. P. I am sending a description of this soldier."—The Editor.

A STRANGE mixture of fierceness, military discipline, pride of corps, and gentility, a combat trooper of the first order and a right decent chap who can maintain law and order with a smile—that is the M.P. of World War II.

And perhaps the gent who makes the introduction will be G.I. Joe himself, who has come to know and esteem the new streamlined M.P. as his protector and buddy.

Yes, Mademoiselle of Armentieres won't recognize him from the untrained, swashbuckling military policeman of the first war.

The military police corps is a separate arm of the service, and because it is a separate arm it has a separate mission and a very definite goal—service to the command.

It is a long, gruelling program that makes an M.P. He digs foxholes and slit trenches; he practices with mortars; learns .50- and .30-caliber machine guns; learns how to camouflage, and learns how to take over hostile towns; learns how to quell anything from a two-man-fight to a free-for-all.

He knows how to make his way through a captured village with his tommy gun or carbine always ready to polish off a sniper, and is more than a bit of a Commando with a blue and white brassard. And, best of all, he knows how to befriend the soldier and to keep him out of trouble. He's everywhere!

You'll see him on the streets back home, and riding trains. You'll see him everywhere the army wants a job done. Perhaps he will be the chap you will meet and guide you over narrow, hazardous roads of a foreign country, and see that you and your vehicles are stowed safely aboard those landing craft which will stare you on your way to a huddle with the little brown brothers of the super race.

Or maybe he is lying at some crossroad where some shell has landed. Crossroads, the fighting man will tell you, are the ban of a soldier's existence and contribute greatly to his non-existence.

Only tactful, reliable soldiers with an above-average I.Q. are wanted in M.P. outfits. The excitable types, or those who cannot refuse a drink from a friend, will not last long in the new corps.

It's an M.P.'s job to be out there on the crossroads, a permanent clay pigeon and a living bull's eye, to keep supplies open, reinforcements moving in the right direction, and rear traffic out of the way of the advance. He studies motor transport problems, digs deeply into maps, guards lines of communications, collects and guards prisoners of war, and learns where to send command cars, big guns, tanks and marching soldiers. He studies radio to keep in touch with headquarters, with troops ahead and troops in rear.

Anybody who starts anything with an M.P. is insane. They're picked men, and their training starts where Commandos leave off.

The Lyttelton Episode

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

WHO starts or wins a war becomes in time academic. You remember how all the arguments about who won the last war were ended by the incontrovertible, "God won the war".

We know now that that was sacrilegious because the Lord never could have produced a peace quite so confused as that which ended the last war and produced the present one.

Of course, there was an outcry in England and America when Oliver Lyttelton, minister of production, said:

"Japan was provoked into attacking the Americans at Pearl Harbor. It is a travesty on history ever to say that America was forced into the war. Everyone knows where American sympathies were, it is incorrect to say that America was ever truly neutral, even before America came into the war on an all-out fighting basis."

They made the man apologize and he did it by suggesting that he meant something else, which is perhaps English humor, but we here on this side of the ocean don't get it. Maybe we're dumb.

The fact of the matter is that until Adm. Kimmel and Gen. Short are court martialed, or are investigated by congress, we shall not know all there is to know about Lyttelton's statement and, from the standpoint of practical results, what difference does it really make?

We shall continue to fight Japan if Lyttelton is right or wrong. Of course, the truth might affect Roosevelt's fortunes, but not those of the American people.

WHAT interests me more than Lyttelton's statement is why he said it at the particular moment when the Republicans were gathering in Chicago.

Britishers tell me it all has no meaning because Lyttelton is like that, saying what he wants to say and often with a hot potato in his mouth. I don't know the gentleman and it is possible that his countrymen in New York do him an injustice. He may be like Henry Wallace or Harold Ickes, who talk out of turn.

Nevertheless, it strikes me that there have been a few incidents that would indicate that the British are not as partisan for Roosevelt as they used to be.

It would be infinitely better taste if they minded their own business, but it begins to look as though they will drop a few hints here and there to Roosevelt's disadvantage. Or maybe Churchill, being a grand student of American psychology, is working for Roosevelt by slamming him, which is pretty sound, as in the present state of affairs our people are not too strong for anybody in Europe.

Whichever way you interpret it—and there are arguments one way and the other—the British are interested in this election and are doing things about it.

THE presence of John Foster Dulles in the Dewey camp, together with the undenied report that he may be Dewey's secretary of state, cannot possibly displease the British as much as it does the New Dealers who call Dewey an isolationist.

John Foster Dulles is a lawyer of the firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, which for years did much of the American law work in Europe. Dulles' grandfather, John W. Foster, was a broad-minded secretary of state and his uncle was Robert Lansing, who was Woodrow Wilson's secretary of state.

The British surely can have no ground to be displeased with him. They used to speak disparagingly of Dewey, but I notice that that sort of talk is quieting down. After all, if Dewey is elected, the British will have to learn how to live with him—and they are good learners.

I have seen no evidence so far that Joe Stalin is trying to run or influence the Republican convention. He is not dropping gentle hints. He is not timing public remarks to put ideas in the delegates' heads.

That is extremely smart of Joe. All he needs to do is to indorse some candidate to assure his defeat in the Republican party. Although the Communists ridicule Dewey, that only can be to his advantage. After all, whomever Sidney Hillman opposes, Americans must regard with favor.

On The Weather Front

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — One little injustice came out of the invasion landings that can be corrected here, thanks to U. S. Weatherman F. W. Reichelderfer and his staff.

It came out of numerous reports of rough seas and bad weather that rolled back from the invasion beaches.

Many correspondents remarked that a number of barges capsized and dumped their human and materiel cargoes into the channel.

Nearly all of them said seasickness left many of our soldiers weak and weary when they hit the beaches.

Other reports told of clouds and low visibility that made it necessary for our air umbrella to operate at dangerously low altitudes.

In view of the great to-do that has been made for years about invasion weather, and the fact that no move would be made until the army weathermen gave the all-clear, the natural reaction was that the old weatherman was wrong as usual.

Such, I am assured here, wasn't the case. A long-range forecast was worked out and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower and his staff knew to within a few days when the invasion would be launched. As those days approached, final preparations were made.

Then, it was the weathermen, not the generals, who took over the invasion. As a matter of fact, it was learned that weathermen actually delayed the operation perhaps only for a day or two.

The ideal weather would have been clear skies and a sea just rough enough to make the invasion boats uneasy targets for the shore batteries, but not so rough as to make the troops uneasy.

You can't order weather like that. "What's so rare as a day in June" may be good poetry, but from a military standpoint, it should have been written, "What's so rare as the kind of a day we want in June."

The weathermen gave an accurate forecast for June 6. They described the weather all the way across the channel and into France.

Gen. Eisenhower and his staff decided it was good enough. If they had waited for that perfect day, the invasion might not have taken place yet.

Not until after this war is over will we know all the changes that have been inaugurated in weather forecasting in the last few years.

Much credit for this is due to Reichelderfer. Invasion forecasts were also "on our side" as weather in Europe is "made in the west".

From bases in Greenland, we have had the edge on the Germans in predicting European weather. We will continue to have that edge.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Another Winning Party Platform

1.—We are against plans. We believe that there has been too much planning, that the world is over-planned and that wonderful results might follow a decision not to plan a darned thing for a long time.

2.—We pledge a plan to stop further planning.

3.—We hereby take a definite stand against promises to the people of the United States and to the world in general. It is our conviction that promises have been made so lightly, so frequently and on such large scales during the last decade that the very word "promise" has lost the force of its old-time meaning.

4.—We believe that the business of promising everybody everything not only has undermined confidence in promises, but has reached a point where it is possible to scare a man (or a people) to death by simply beginning a sentence "I promise you. . . ."

5.—We are for a moratorium on experiments. We hold that while experimenting is a good thing up to a point, the point has been passed. We pledge the party to a four-year moratorium on anything faintly resembling an experiment with our social, political, financial or economic life.

6.—We pledge the party to a fight to the death against questionnaires. It is our belief that the questionnaire evil has been carried to such extremes that when a businessman sees a letter carrier approaching his usefulness for the day is ruined.

7.—We stand firmly for the return of the vice presidency to the old-time state of unimportance and promise that if elected our candidate for the job will speak only when spoken to, keep away from the microphone, develop resistance powers against newsreel photographers and remember that he is merely the understudy.

8.—We are against radio advertising jingles and most commercials.

9.—We favor permitting the owners and operators of American industries to operate them.

10.—We promise not to use American soldiers to carry industrialists from their offices in labor disputes and agree to escort them out of the back door quietly and without the cooperation of camera men.

11.—We think enough is being deducted from pay envelopes every week for all kinds of federal programs, taxes, subscriptions, dues, etc., and we solemnly promise to junk any new proposition that will cost another dime. The security situation has reached a point where people are beginning demand security from security.

12.—We are for the repeal of prohibition. After recent attempts to get a glass of beer or a drink of rye, gin or Scotch in America, and still have enough money left to pay the grocery bill, we think prohibition has gone far enough.

13.—We are opposed to any more power for anybody anywhere. It's too much power that has put us where we are.

Song For Japan

Those who from
The battle race
Lose their ships,
But keep their "face".

An attorney general has ruled that vitamins may be sold only at drug stores. At present they're on sale everywhere except in coal and wood yards.

Few things seem to us to contribute less to the national confidence than the expressions on the faces of the delegates shown leaving for party conventions in newspapers pictures.

Some how or other, we still can't understand how a man like Tom Dewey can be an all-out foe of rackets and still go into politics.

And it must jar a racket-buster's sensibilities to hear the voices breaking into "The Gang's All Here".

Mayor LaGuardia denounces people who use trains for vacations this summer, and we are with him. But we warn him we will be pretty sore if we find him galavanting around to any political meetings or Indian adoptions.

We would like to see a lie detector set up in any political convention during the pledge making. It would blow up even if air-cooled.

The News Today

By Truman Twill

THERE is no news worth mentioning. The political parties are packing the men and ideas for running the world's most important country for the next four years, but they do that every four years.

The vernal equinox has just happened, but it doesn't amount to much. All you do is fix it up so the earth, instead of whirling around at one angle to the sun, just whirls around at another angle so the days are longer than the nights on one half and the nights are longer than the days on the other half.

The Russians are on the move and every day they capture steen villages and towns, destroy steen airplanes and tanks and knock off upsteen Germans, but they've been doing that so long no one can be expected to run a fever about it when they do it some more.

The Americans, of course, have just moved into a place called Chairbcorg, or Shareboor, depending on what radio station you are listening to, but everybody expected they would do it whenever they got around to it. Everybody, that is, except a lot of German generals who gambled their padded uniforms that the trick of the century couldn't be pulled.

The English have pulled themselves together and systematically are blasting the stuffings out of France in the general direction of Paris, and the French systematically are pulling themselves apart and blasting the stuffings out of everything in the general direction of everywhere, but that hardly comes under the heading of news. It's just part of the invasion of Europe—and that isn't news any more.

Hollywood, where some of the most beautiful women on earth always are getting married to some of the most beautiful men, continues to be the scene of much marital strife as any of the other places where women and men wish they had married someone who was better looking, but that's old stuff. Everybody knows about Hollywood.

The country is raising another loan of who can remember how many billions, which means everybody must cough up another hundred bucks, but that sort of thing goes on all the time and what is money, after all, but just a lot of figures that people take for granted because they can't understand them?

This, that and the other thing keep happening at the rate of one a minute all over the earth; high explosives are being shot off by the ton every second; millions of men are locked in mortal combat; the shape of things to come for generations to come is being decided, but the news today is quiet.

We should not think that we have been passively attacked but that we actively have pulled the enemy toward us.—Tokyo radio, after Japan bombing.

County About Two-Thirds Of Way To $7,425,998 Goal

Columbiana county's Fifth War Loan campaign rapidly is approaching the two-thirds mark in its drive for $7,452,998. Official reports from four areas for Thursday's over-all sales boosted the grand total to $4,530,258.85.

The E, F and G Bond sales yesterday were reported as $51,430.75, Francis P. White, county chairman, said, bringing the total for individual Bond purchases to $950,910.95. Yesterday's over-all sales were $174,930.75.

The breakdown for county sales yesterday is as follows:

East Liverpool, $42,400; Leetonia, $5,168.75; Salem, $107,918.25, and Wellsville, $19,443.75.

Big Investors Near Goal

WASHINGTON, June 30—Corporations and other non-banking investors neared their 10 billion goal in the 16 billion Fifth War Loan drive today, but sales to individuals continued to lag. Sales through Wednesday, as announced Thursday night, totaled $12,605,000,000, 79 percent of the quota. Sales to corporations and other non-banking investors totaled $9,736,000,000, 97 percent of their quota. Sales to individuals aggregated $2,869,000,000, 48 percent of the quota.

$22,330 Sales Spurs Campaign At Wellsville

A peak was reached Thursday in the Fifth War Loan in Wellsville when a sale of $22,330 was reported, boosting the community's total to $70,380. The goal is $464,321, however.

Yesterday's purchases included 21 E Bonds, five F and one G, and one each 2½ and 1½ treasury notes and a seven-eighths certificate.

INVALIDS EMPLOYED TO SALVAGE SCREWS

By The United Press.

SEATTLE—A valuable group of Boeing aircraft company employes stay at home every day, but they are not absentees—they are shut-ins who sort tons of screws swept daily from the floor of the vast Flying Fortress plant.

The plan started by accident when a Boeing official was asked if any work was available for an invalid girl who was unable to leave her home. Tons of screws had accumulated and were valueless, unsorted.

Two large sacks of them were sent to the girl and a week later they came back, carefully segregated as to size and type. Elated, Boeing officials asked a welfare agency to find other physically handicapped persons to take part in the new task.

More than 50 invalids now are handling several tons of screws a month. Mrs. Ida Jane Crawford, confined to a wheel chair, sorts 120 pounds a week; J. M. McDanald, suffering from arthritis feels he has a part in building the big Fortresses he hears zooming overhead almost daily.

One of the best sorters is 69-year-old Joe Clay, who uses to good advantage the manual dexterity he learned during many years as a sleight-of-hand artist.

OUTPUT OF STEEL CUT BY LABOR SHORTAGES

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30 — A labor shortage has forced the shutdown of more than 30 open hearth furnaces and production now is but 95.7 percent of the steel industry's rated capacity compared to 99 percent the middle of last month, the war production board reported Thursday.

Output even may fall short of allotments made for war and essential civilian purposes for July, August and September, Charles E. Wilson executive vice chairman of the WPB, declared.

He estimated the shutdowns are costing the war effort 200,000 tons of ingot steel a month, while an increase in the length of time required for repair of furnaces is causing a loss of an additional several hundred thousand tons.

Wilson announced that a meeting of the iron and steel industry advisory committee has been called for July 7 to seek solutions to the manpower problem. A steel labor advisory committee will meet a few days later.

Livorno, a major port which undoubtedly will prove of immense value in supplying future operations.

Enemy Snipers Wiped Out

On an important lateral road inland the Americans wiped out large numbers of enemy snipers in the village of Monteverdi.

Farther inland, tanks reached a point two miles south of Castelnuovo, advanced a mile northeast of Radicondoni and reached a point 14 miles due west of Siena.

The French captured the villages of Frosini and Poggio Siena Vecchia, on high ground commanding Highway 73 into Siena. Other French forces farther east reached the outskirts of Buocovento, a road center on the east bank of the Arbia river, in a six-mile advance.

The villages of Pampana and Murlo aslo were taken.

In a general advance west of Lake Trasimeno, the Eighth army swept through the villages of Nardella and Pozzuolo. Without opposition, it captured Laviano and mopped up Cassamaggiore.

A little to the west, Aquaviva was taken. After a brush with Nazi rear-guards, Chianciano was captured and advance troops entered the town of Montepulciano.

East of Lake Trasimeno, Eighth army patrols thrust to the vicinity of Magione. North of Perugia, troops passed Pitonico and Paerno, and now are confronted with the River Chiascio. This stream is 100 to 150 feet wide, with steep banks, but can be forded in places.

German efforts to reequip battered armies in Italy suffered a major blow yesterday when light and fighter bombers destroyed the bulk of a shipment of about 500 motor vehicles, numerous tanks and supplies of gasoline.

Last night RAF Halifaxes, Liberators and Wellingtons bombed an air field at Feuersbrunn, 30 miles northwest of Vienna, a German fighter base.

Three enemy planes were destroyed, with the Allies losing the same number.

participating in the gigantic air assaults, while Airacobras are helping the fighters.

Bombers of the Russian northern fleet hit Kirkenes in northern Norway, sinking three enemy transports totaling 20,000 tons and damaging three others, a Moscow communique said.

In addition, another transport enroute to Petsamo was reported sunk and 11 German planes shot down.

The communique said 3,000 Finns were killed in one sector of the northern front and Soviet troops liberated 30,000 civilians held in Finnish concentration camps.

Dispatches pictured the Finns as being routed all along the Aunus isthmus between Lakes Ladoga and Onezhskoe (Onega).

Liberation of Petrozavodsk was accomplished by a deep encircling maneuver, along with an amphibious landing of troops on the shores of Lake Onezhskoe. Also taken is the town and railway junction of Kondapagoa, 30 miles farther north.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY. Just to make sure that everything works out well, Sgt. E. P. Rutta of Chicago jokingly aims his pistol at "barber" Cpl. James Piernan of Mamaroneck, N. Y., as the latter experiments on him with a German razor found in a captured French town.

ANOTHER CHAPTER "ADVENTURE OF THE FLYING CADETS"

RADIO, SHOWS, COMICS AFFECT NAME CHOICES

By The United Press.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—One of the most profound influences on the choice of first names for American children are the motion pictures, comic strips and radio programs, according to Dr. Clifford R. Adams, associate professor of education and psychology at Pennsylvania State college.

Karen, Dianne and Catherine were the top three choices of co-eds, Dr. Adams found in a canvass of 400 Penn State students. Men students preferred names like Jeffrey, Stephen and Richard Percival, Horace, Hepzibah and Matilda, on the other hand, were very much in disfavor.

"The names of well-liked movie stars and radio personalities were rated highly by the students, whereas the names of ridiculed comic strip characters proved most unpopular," Dr. Adams reported.

In the order of their preference, the best-liked feminine names were Karen, Dianne, Catherine, Linda, Ellen, Barbara, Gail, Carol Margot, and Kathleen. Males expressed a preference for names like Jeffrey, Stephen, Richard, Lawrence, Michael, Peter, David, Mark, Ronald and John.

Although not all were listed in the first 10, the old stand-bys like John, James, Kathleen, Helen and Mary rated surprisingly high.

Philippines Bill Signed

WASHINGTON, June 30—Legislation pledging the United States to drive the Japanese invaders from the Philippines and to grant the islands their full independence as soon as normal government functions can be restored was signed today by President Roosevelt.

AERIAL

ed American heavy bombers attacked the Vienna area today, indicating a prompt follow-up is being made of the blow delivered in the same region last night by RAF Wellingtons, Halifaxes and Liberators.

The night raiders flew from Italian bases and struck an air field at Feuersbrunn, 30 miles northwest of Vienna.

Fierce Air Duels Reported

The German radio asserted fierce air battles developed over Vienna's suburbs this morning between the U. S. raiders—presumably also operating from Italy—and Nazi fighters.

In northwestern Europe, however, bad weather, which has dogged the Allied invasion air forces almost since D-day, closed in again and for the second time in a week the night passed with no sizeable operations reported over the continent.

British Beaufighters yesterday evening attacked an enemy tanker, escorted by a minesweeper, in the Bay of Biscay. The tanker was left smoking furiously and the minesweeper was hit, the air ministry announced.

British-based American Ninth air force Thunderbolts topped off an active day yesterday, considering the weather, by attacking the Germans' reinforcement lines between Rouen and the Normandy battle front.

They also extended the campaign against railroad facilities to the area south of Orleans, with a blow at the Vierzon-Ville yards 30 miles farther inland.

Fighters and fighter-bombers of the RAF's tactical air force, which yesterday hit a new peak of activity with 1,100 sorties (individual plane flights), attacked more railroad junctions and bridges behind the German lines.

The total aerial score for yesterday was 55 German planes shot down, with 25 Allied planes lost, including 15 American heavy bombers.

DEWEY'S PLANS MAY DEPEND ON COURSE OF WAR

Nominee Completes Parley With Party's Leaders, Holds News Session

go along for any international conference has not been overlooked in the Republican camp, either. Many thought Dewey could not refuse, might even welcome, the opportunity.

Dewey held a lengthy press conference yesterday.

He made it clear that he and Gov. John W. Bricker will be a close-working team in the campaign ahead.

Silent On Cabinet Possibilities

Repeatedly, in answers to questions respecting future plans, he said he and Bricker haven't got around to that yet or he and Bricker will talk that over when they can or he hopes to discuss that soon with Bricker.

Declining to discuss cabinet possibilities—if he wins the White House—the smiling G.O.P. nominee gave speedy indorsement to many planks of the party's platform, including those on foreign policy, the President's fair employment practices committee, foreign trade and others.

Wearing a light gray suit, Dewey appeared fresh and rested at his press conference, despite the physical strain of shaking thousands of hands at a public reception lasting past midnight Wednesday.

Dewey was asked specifically if he "welcomes the editorial support of the Chicago Tribune", which once criticized his views on foreign policy. There was a laugh from the reporters.

Smilingly, Dewey replied:

"I don't know that I have the editorial support of the Tribune. I shall welcome the support of every good American in the whole United States."

Puffs Cigaret Holder

The nominee sat at a table and puffed a cigaret-in-holder, much after the Franklin D. Roosevelt fashion, while the reporters asked their questions.

One query was how he planned to reach the servicemen with campaign appeals. Dewey replied that has not yet been determined.

"You don't have an airplane all fitted out, do you?" one of the newsmen asked, obviously alluding to the outfitting of a plane which President Roosevelt might use, although the White House has said it was not done for that specific purpose.

"No," Dewey grinned, "but I came out here in a very good one."

Once during the conference, Dewey halted the proceedings to admonish politely a photographer who had snapped a shot after the other picture-takers had agreed not to take any more shots.

"Gentlemen, the picture taking is over," Dewey said, looking toward a photographer in the gallery. "It will be unfair for you to have any more pictures, when all of the rest of them have agreed not to take any more."

Covers Wide Range Of Subjects

Dewey covered a wide range of issues in answer to questions. He said he had read the Republican platform only once—while he was enroute to Chicago by plane—and that "it represents my views".

Referring to Dewey's promise to gather young men around him, a reporter asked if that meant he would discharge Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

"You are asking me to pass on the mental vigor of Mr. Hull," Dewey replied. "I will not do that. I am not engaging in cabinet-picking at this time."

Throughout the conference, Dewey repeatedly called reporters by their first names. It was "Yes, Jim," and "What did you say, Charley?" To those he did not know, he often said, "Just a minute, this gentleman asked a question first."

The nominee expressed satisfaction with the foreign trade plank of the party platform. While stating that some persons think it might have been better, Dewey said it should be recognized that the platform was drawn by persons with conflicting opinions, and that as a result there had to be some compromising.

"This was totally an unbossed convention," he declared. "The delegates were free to reach their own decisions."

Trade Plank Discussed

Parts of the foreign trade plank may appear, at first, to be inconsistent, he said, recalling that the plank promises an "adequate protective tariff" on competitive products designed to assure American standards.

"The essence of the plank is to be found in the latter part," Dewey said. "The party promises that this nation will work with other nations to promote greater trade. This is not inconsistent with the tariff part of the plank."

Questioned closely about his views on post-war foreign policy, Dewey said he does not believe the United States should surrender its "sovereign right to make war" to any international organization.

"The sovereign power to make war is primarily a defensive power on our part," he declared. "We never have fought any offensive war."

"How about the Mexican war?" a reporter asked.

"That depends on your interpretation," he said.

Negro Reporter Given Promise

The nominee defended state regulation of insurance companies at length and promised a Negro reporter he would live up to this oath to enforce the 13th and 14th amendments if he is elected.

A reporter cited a passage from Dewey's acceptance speech that said Germany's will to fight again at some future time must be broken. He asked Dewey how we would do it.

"That will develop during the campaign," the nominee responded. "Three different plans have been suggested to me. A lot will depend on when Germany surrenders."

He did not discuss the "three plans".

Dewey said he was advised his first press conference as presidential nominee, in a packed ball room of the Stevens hotel, "was the largest ever held", and commented:

"I am awe struck."

More than 500 persons—reporters, delegates and just onlookers—were jammed into the conference room.

A woman reporter commented that Dewey's acceptance speech probably was one of the "shortest on record", asking:

"Can we hope that all of your speeches will be as short?"

"You are at liberty to hope," Dewey replied, "and I join in your hope."

Rules Out 'Police Force'

When Dewey was asked if he thinks the G.O.P. platform ruled out an international police force, he shot back at his questioner:

"What do you mean by an international police force?"

The reporter said he meant a force to which the various nations would contribute troops. Dewey replied:

"If you mean an army with American soldiers, directed by some disembodied spirit, as a world agency, I would say that was ruled out."

In discussing the campaign organization, Dewey made it clear he will consult Gov. Bricker before making final decisions.

"Will Willkie be invited to take part in your strategy conferences?" he was asked.

"So far we have consulted only with members of the national committee, but later there will be consultations with others," Dewey said.

"Does that include Willkie?"

"Certainly."

Dewey also replied "certainly I will" when asked whether he will continue as governor of New York while campaigning for the presidency.

Likes Idea Of SEC

Asked whether he would advocate any modification of the securities exchange law, Dewey said:

"By and large, I think the SEC one of the best things the present administration has done. As to its administration, the SEC has not done its best to stimulate the flow of capital."

The governor ruled out as "hypothetical" a question whether he would accept a third term as president, if the occasion arose, but stood on his former statement that:

"The third term is destructive of everything good in the American tradition."

Dewey expressd the opinion that federal aid will have to be given to bolster reemployment in the post-war transition period, but said he believes the problem must be met chiefly by private enterprise.

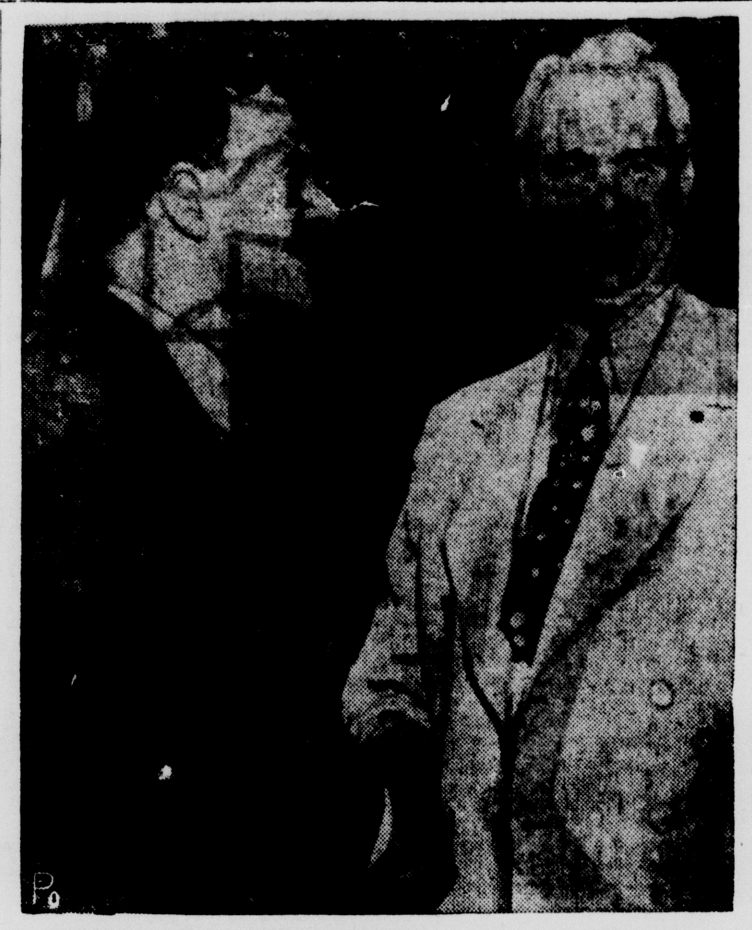
He replied affirmatively to a question whether he believes the party platform presumes establishment of a world court after the war.

Asked whether he is "satisfied with the present gasoline ration program", Dewey grinned and asked:

"Do you know anybody who is?"

The newly-elected Republican national committee named a committee of six yesterday to confer with Dewey on his choice for the new national chairman to run his campaign.

Col. R. B. Creager of Texas was named ex-officio chairman of the six-member group. Other members: J. Russel Sprague, New York; Ezra R. Whitla, Idaho; Werner W. Schroeder, Illinois; Mrs. George A. Sayre, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Katherine K. Brown, Ohio.



REPUBLICAN STANDARD BEARERS. Republican candidate for president, Thomas E. Dewey, left, shook hands with Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, who is the party's choice for vice president, at the conclusion of the convention in Chicago.

Invasion Weapons—23.

155-mm. Gun

AP Features

THE 155-mm. gun, tabbed "Long Tom" by troops, combines great fire power with a high degree of mobility. A heavy field gun, it can also serve as a coast defense weapon and has seen extensive service in Africa, Italy and the South Pacific.

Firing a 95-pound demolition or chemical projectile about 15 miles at a rate of four rounds per minute, the gun weighs about 15 tons, and is self-propelled or tractor-drawn.

As a self-propelled weapon it is mounted on an armored full-track vehicle and has the running characteristics of a medium tank and requires a 10-man crew. As a tractor-drawn weapon, it has a crew of 15.

CLEVELAND, June 30—Cuyahoga county's Fifth War Loan drive went over the top by $25,000,000 Thursday, as the Federal Reserve bank reported sales of $270,858,703, against a goal of $245,000,000.

NYE MOVES INTO LEAD IN TIGHT SENATE RACE

By The Associated Press.

FARGO, N. D., June 30—For the second time in his senatorial career, Sen. Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota faces a serious threat to unseat him from the upper house of the nation's legislative body.

Sen. Nye and Lynn U. Stambaugh, past national commander of the American Legion, were virtually neck and neck Thursday night in returns from Tuesday's Republican primary.

With fewer than 100 of the state's precincts remaining to be heard from, Nye had a narrow margin of 139 votes over the Fargo attorney.

Returns from 2,157 of 2,251 precincts gave Nye 36,853; Stambaugh 36,714; Burdick 34,601, and Townley 1,307.

RIOTING DANES BURN PICTURES OF HITLER

By The Associated Press.

STOCKHOLM, June 30—More than 1,000 bonfires burned in the streets of Copenhagen Thursday as Danish patriots continued anti-Nazi demonstrations in which 11 persons have been killed and 24 wounded, the Free Danish Press Service reported.

Danes ran through the streets, hurling pictures of Adolf Hitler into the fires and singing, "God Save the King", the news service said, adding that British flags were hoisted at many places.

SECOND LT. JOE EDWARD ANDREWS and his bride have arrived here to spend a 15-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance L. Andrews, St. Clair ave., and with the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cooke, Montgomery ave.

Lt. and Mrs. Andrews were united in marriage Saturday night at 6:45 o'clock in the Presbyterian church at Blytheville, Ark., where he is stationed at the air field. Rev. H. T. Kidd performed the ring ceremony in the presence of Mrs. Frank M. Berry of Wheeling, matron of honor, and 2nd Lt. Frank M. Berry, who also is stationed at Blytheville air field and who served as Lt. Andrews' best man.

The bride, the former Miss Avonell Ann Cooke, wore a street-length costume of aqua crepe with hat to match and brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids. She is a graduate of the East Liverpool High school with the class of 1938 and attended Kent university, where she was a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau sorority.

She is employed in the personnel department of the Curtiss-Wright Corp. in Beaver.

Mrs. Berry wore a white Jersey dress with yellow accessories and her corsage was of gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was held at the Hotel Noble for members of the bridal party. Other guests were 2nd Lt. Robert Bleicher of Dayton and Flight Officers John P. Arnold of Berea and M. Parker Butts of Boston.

Lt. Andrews was graduated from East Liverpool High school with the class of 1936 and previous to his enlistment in the air corps in January, 1943, was associated in the transfer business with his father.

He was graduated from Blytheville army air field Tuesday as a pilot and received his wings and commission. He will return to Blytheville for assignment at the conclusion of his leave and Mrs. Andrews will remain with her mother for the duration.

Mrs. George Steele won the 18-hole medal play featured on the Ladies' day program at the East Liverpool Country club Wednesday morning and afternoon. The prize was donated by Mrs. Frances Simmers Brewer. Mrs. Sam Caplan won the putting contest.

Qualifying for the July cup tournament will be held until Wednesday.

A Scotch foursome is planned for Tuesday, July 4, and a nine-hole medal play will be held Wednesday. Miss Rachel Moninger will donate the Wednesday prize.

Mrs. Dera Belle Griffith of Poland, grand templar of Ohio for the Ladies of the Golden Eagle, was guest of honor Wednesday night at a meeting of the East Liverpool chapter in the Moose hall. Other guests included Mrs. Mary McWilliams and Mrs. Emma Ray, both past grand templars from Youngstown.

Miss Ruth Fowler, noble templar, conducted the business session, after which refreshments were served 20 by Mrs. Margaret Gibbons and her committee.

Installation of officers will feature the meeting July 12.

A farewell party was held by members of the Etude club Wednesday night, honoring Ronald Woomer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Woomer, Pennsylvania ave. He will leave in the near future for the navy. The affair was held at the home of Miss Agnes Shadduck, Cleveland ave.

Featured on the evening's program was Miss Beulah Boulton, who has been a student at Sherwood Music college, Chicago, who gave a group of piano selections.

Covers were arranged for 10. Miss Shadduck was aided by Misses Bonnie Emmerling and Beverly Bible.

Honoring their two newest members, Miss Nancy Thompson, a student at Ohio Wesleyan university, and Miss Winifred Sport, a student at Ohio State university, members of the Delta Delta Delta sorority entertained with a 7 o'clock dinner Tuesday night at the Travelers hotel. The table was arranged for 10 and decorated with pastel shader spring flowers. Co-chairmen were Misses Marjorie Woesner and Ann Welch.

Miss Yvonne Golding is president and plans were made to discontinue the meetings for the summer. The next meeting will be in September, the date to be announced later.

Twenty members of the Victory 4-H club enjoyed a wiener roast Tuesday night on the Campground playlot. Harold Ferguson is the adviser, and Donald Snyder, president, conducted the business session.

A softball game was enjoyed, after which a bonfire was built, around which games and music were the pastimes.

Donald Pethtel, Campground rd., will entertain Wednesday.

Closing the season, members of the Three Ace club were entertained Wednesday night in the home of Mrs. Leo McKeever, Holliday st. Two tables of 500 were in play and trophies were awarded Mrs. McKeever and Mrs. Norman Heath. Mrs. Sam Bowers received the traveling prize.

Luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Hilda Wheatley.

Chester Social Notes

At a solemn Nuptial Mass Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in the Sacred Heart Catholic church, Miss Mary Amedeo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Amedeo, Railroad st., became the bride of Mr. Maurice J. Pasculle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pasculle of Morgantown. Rev. Fr. William J. Sauer officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Members of the bridal party took their places before the altar as Rossini's "Wedding March" was played by William Bourne, church organist. "Ave Marie" was sung by the choir.

Miss Rose Amedeo, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and was attired in dusty rose net and jersey. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium. Mr. Louis Pasculle, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore gowns of pastel shades and corsages of pink rosebuds and white gardenias.

The remainder of the bridal party consisted of John and James Bonessi, Casimir Youstok and Thomas Bower, altar boys.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in traditional bridal attire of white satin with train and a finger-tip veil caught to a Juliet cap trimmed with satin and orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a gold cross, a gift of the bridegroom.

She is a graduate of Chester High school and Mt. Union college, Alliance, where she received a bachelor of arts degree. She has been instructor of Latin and English in the Chester High school for several years.

Mr. Pasculle is a graduate of West Virginia university and is associated with the Westinghouse Electric Co., of Pittsburgh as an electrical engineer.

Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pasculle will reside in Wilkinsburg.

Several honorary events have been held for the bride during the last week, culminating with a dessert luncheon Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Everett Chandler and Mrs. Max Tuttle as co-hostesses in the latter's home, Carolina ave.

Three tables of bridge were in play with prizes awarded Mrs. Thomas Ridge and Miss Sara Thomas.

Dessert was served at tables decorated with flowers, lighted tapers and bridal appointments. Miss Amedeo was presented a gift by the hostesses.

An all-day meeting of the Just-a-Mere club was held Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Carl Allison of Gas valley. Dinner was served at noon by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert Buckley, Mrs. Martha Hallett and Miss Della Ann Allison.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Howard Hayward. Sewing was the diversion of the afternoon's social activities. Guests included Mrs. C. E. Buckley of Beaver, Mrs. Hallett of East Liverpool and Mrs. T. B. Allison and Mrs. Robert Buckley of Chester.

The club will hold its annual picnic July 27 at Tomlinson Run park with with Mrs. Earl Pugh and Mrs. Ennis Allison hostesses.

Mrs. Marty Allison, Carolina ave., received members of the S. C. E. club Wednesday night. Several tables of cards were in play with prizes awarded Mrs. Jane Pruden and Mrs. Viva Johnston.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Pruden will be hostess to the group July 12 at her home, Third st.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Free Methodist church with Mrs. Allie Campbell, president, directing the business session.

Mrs. Anna Potter, pastor of the Newell Methodist church, will be guest speaker.

The Fairview Grange authorized the purchase of two $100 War Bonds Tuesday night at its meeting in the Pughtown Grange hall when a business session was conducted by C. C. Herron, worthy master.

The program, presented under the direction of legislative committee, headed by J. P. Rice, chairman, included two quartet selections by E. Y. Miller, J. H. Mayhew, C. V. Stewart and Frank Richmond, accompanied by Mrs. Stewart, and a solo by Mr. Richmond.

Woodrow Marshall, sanitary engineer of Hancock county, was guest speaker. Two movies based on the fight for tuberculosis control and recreation were shown by Mr. Marshall.

The formation of a juvenile Grange was outlined and Mrs. Harley Ferguson was appointed matron.

Refreshments were served by the social committee consisting of Mrs. Earl Pugh, Mrs. John Allison, Mrs. W. C. Huff, Mrs. J. H. Mayhew and Mrs. John Cunningham.

The Grange will attend Pomona Grange next Thursday at the Pughtown Grange hall and also will hold an initiation of new members on July 25.

Salineville Social Notes

Rev. Fr. John I. Higgins led the devotionals of the Altar and Rosary society of St. Patrick's Catholic church when the group met Tuesday night in the Knights of Columbus hall.

The business session was conducted by the president, Miss Marguerite Burns. Games and contests were the diversions of the social hour with a prize awarded Mrs. Charles Munday.

Refreshments were served by the social committee.

G.O.P. PLANK INSURES FREE PRESS AND RADIO

By The Associated Press.

A new development in party platforms is the Republican proposal designed to insure a free press and radio.

Following are salient points of this plank:

"It is imperative to the maintenance of a free America that the press and radio be free and that full and complete information be available to Americans.

"We insistently condemn any tendency to regard the press or the radio as instruments of the administration and the use of government publicity agents for partisan ends.

"We need a new radio law which will define, in clear and unmistakable language, the role of the federal communications commission.

"All channels of news must be kept open with equality of access to information at the source. If agreement can be achieved with foreign nations to establish the same principles, it will be a valuable contribution to future peace."

Probed Board To Reopen

CLEVELAND, June 30 — Local ration board 6, object of an investigation which disclosed wholesale gasoline and food ration frauds and resulted in indictments against two government officials and congressional demands for a complete probe of the national ration system, will re-open for business at its old location Wednesday, office of price administration officials announced Thursday.

300 GIRL SCOUTS TO ATTEND CAMP

Registration Ends Saturday For Session At Park

Some 300 Girl Scouts are expected to attend the day camp planned July 11-20 at Thompson park, according to Mrs. J. A. Bryan, chairman, who said Saturday morning will be the deadline for registration, to be conducted at the Ohio Power Co. office by Mrs. A. E. Stoddard, council member.

The project, sponsored by the Girl Scout council for Scouts of East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester and Newell, will be held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The $1 fee for each girl for the six-day period will provide milk daily, food for special cookouts and materials.

Nature Activities Planned

Leaf prints, nature quests, plaster casts, weather bureaus and nature trails are a few of the many devices to be used to extend interest in nature. Mats will be woven from grasses on a primitive loom and there will be wood carving. Photography and sketching also have been planned.

Archery, such as learning fundamental skill and safety precautions along with related work in making arrows, arm guards, quivers and targets will be stressed.

Folk dancing and singing games will be held for teamwork and rhythm exercises. There will be impromptu acting of stories, charades and dramatization of ballads and poems.

Craft Projects Listed

Craft in outdoor living will include arrangements for cupboards, coat racks, hangers and hammocks; food storage such as lunch trees, caches, and woven tables; washing facilities such as soap dishes and lashed towel racks; cooking necessities as making fireplaces, tables, lashed or woven, and decorating tables with natural materials, and outdoor craft such as weaving sit-up-ons, making tin can lanterns and candle holders and bird cafeterias for using lunch left-overs.

He said the magazine will accept advertising but will have no fiction.

Dobbin In Comeback

Horse-Drawn Floats Will Feature Midland Fete

Special To The Review.

MIDLAND, June 30—All vehicle entries in Midland's Fourth of July parade must be horse-drawn as a war-time measure to conserve gasoline with the exception of the 40 and 8 entry of the East Liverpool American Legion post, slated to parade in the interest of the Fifth War Loan.

According to Capt. Robert Graham, celebration chairman, bands from Midland, New Brighton and Monaca High schools will furnish the music for the parade as well as the East Liverpool American Legion drum corps and the Monaca Concert band.

In addition to the parade at 10:30 a. m. a basket picnic, band concerts, sport events and daylight fireworks have been planned. The fireworks will be set off immediately after the parade and the concert by the Midland High school band at 12:30 p. m. in Lincoln park.

Spies' Capture Disclosed

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 30 — State police Thursday announced the capture of two Nazi spies Aug. 11, 1943, within 24 hours of their landing in a rubber lifeboat at the mouth of the Rio Paraida Do Sul. The police announcement said the men had been assigned to send shipping information to Germany. They also led police to a buried radio transmitter and $30,000 in United States, Brazilian, French, Argentine, British and Portuguese money.

Roosevelt Power Extended

WASHINGTON, June 30 — The authority of President Roosevelt to requisition articles and materials needed by the United States for defense purposes and to requisition war materials was extended to June 20, 1945, in two bills which have been approved by the President.

HANCOCK BOND GOAL EXCEEDED

Hughes Reports $2,260,606 In Over-All Purchases

Hancock county rang the bell today in the Fifth War Loan drive as Glenn D. Hughes, county chairman, reported the goal of $2,258,000 has been surpassed by $2,606. All Bonds sold to date show a total of $2,260,060.

The major subscription committees of Weir-Cove, Chester and Newell were commended today by Mr. Hughes for their outstanding work. "The members' untiring efforts played an important role in putting Hancock county over the top in record breaking time," he said.

Committee Members

In addition to Mr. Hughes, the committee consists of T. E. Millsop, E. D. Rothrock and A. E. Hawkins of Weir-Cove area; R. A. Douglass and W. W. Ingram of Chester, and F. B. Lawrence and J. M. Wells of Newell.

Mr. Hughes said: "Although we have reached our over-all quota assigned to the county and have sold sufficient bonds to buy an LST, we still have a big job ahead of us to reach our "E" Bond, or individual sales of $1,000,000, which today stands at $425,606, or 42 percent of this quota.

Hope For $2,658,000

"Hancock county Bond workers are determined to reach an over-all goal of $2,658,000 before the drive ends July 31 and we are confident the citizens and campaign workers of the county will make good on this pledge."

The breakdown of the sales to date are:

Individuals, Weir-Cove, $367,845; Newell, $31,831; Chester, $21,149, and New Cumberland, $4,781.

All-over sales: Weir-Cove, $1,522,000; Newell, $313,331; Chester, $323,449, and New Cumberland, $71,826, with total of $2,260,606.

COOGAN COMES HOME FROM WAR IN BURMA

By The Associated Press.

HOLLYWOOD, June 30 — "The Kid" is home today — a kid no longer but a 29-year-old veteran of the Burma campaign, Flight Officer Jackie Coogan.

The screen's former child actor was the first to land when gliderborne forces dropped at night 150 miles behind Japanese lines in northern Burma. He later was awarded the Air Medal.

Coogan said he will "visit my mother (Mrs. Arthur Bernstein), see some friends, have fun and buy new uniforms — everything mildewed out there."

Coogan will report July 4 at troop carrier command headquarters Stout field, Indianapolis, he said. He entered the service three years ago.

FUNNYMEN. Here are two of the comedy specialists with the Air Service Command Varieties, the all-soldier show from Patterson field, near Dayton, which will be presented at the Ceramic July 5 in two performances—7 p. m. and 9. Extra War Bonds, bought any time this week, may be presented for tickets at the Ceramic boxoffice daily from 1 to 9 p. m. Only Bonds will be good for tickets. No others will be put on sale.

TRAFFIC TOLL JUMPS 11 PERCENT OVER '43

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 30 — Wartime traffic in the United States took a toll of 9,400 lives in the first five months of 1944, the National Safety council said today, an increase of 11 percent—about 1,000 lives—over the corresponding period of 1943.

Increased motor vehicle travel was responsible for part of the growing traffic toll, the council said, adding that motor vehicle mileage was up 6 percent in the first four months this year, compared with the same period a year ago.

Of 41 states which reported statistics for the first five months of 1944, increased fatalities were shown in 30, decreases in nine and no change in two states.

All regions of the country showed increases over 1943, the council said, except the Pacific coast, which showed no change. North-central states reported the greatest increase, with the south-central region second.

There were 286 cities with perfect records during May, the council said. The largest was Columbus, O., with Richmond, Va., second and Syracuse, N. Y., third.

For the five-month period, 135 cities had perfect records, the three largest being Portland, Me., New Britain, Conn., and Cleveland Heights, O., respectively.

HIRING CONTROLS HIT AS U.S. 'BLACK DAY'

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30 — Nationwide hiring controls are set up and ready to go into operation Saturday, says War Manpower Commissioner Paul McNutt, zut a Nebraska legislator denounces the occasion as "a black day in the history of the United States!"

"It is the day when the true liberty of man is to be snuffed out in America by McNutt's national service edict." Rep. Buffett (R) Neb. declared today in a blast inserted in the Congressional Record against the national "priority referral" system.

The plan, intended to channel 200,000 new workers into essential industry through inter-city shifts of workers and vigorous recruiting, was described by Buffett as "a decisive step toward slave labor battalions taken in "full defiance of the congress."

Starting tomorrow, all male labor except farmers must be hired through the U. S. employment service or agencies designated by it. Women, as well as men, have been brought under the system in many communities by action of local manpower officials.

Midland Girl Graduated

MIDLAND, June 30—Miss Giannina V. Castelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Castelli, 751 Midland ave., was graduated today from the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry in Philadelphia and has received the doctor of optometry degree. After she completes her optometric state board examinations, she plans to establish practice in Midland.

9,000 MEN WALK OUT AT TIMKEN DIVISIONS

By The Associated Press.

CANTON, June 30—Four divisions of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. virtually were shut down today as 9,000 of the 10,000 employes walked out in protest of what union leaders termed "a complete breakdown in labor relations".

The company president, William E. Umstattd, reported to the regional war labor board in Cleveland that approximately 9,000 workers are engaged in the work stoppage.

Spokesmen for Golden Lodge, local 1123, CIO-United Steelworkers of America, last night asserted furnaces were being emptied in the melt shop of the Canton steel mill division and that employes were "pulling heat" in the carbonizing department of the Canton bearing division.

Union officials said Canton steel employs 2,113, Canton bearing 5,380 and Gambrinus steel and bearing divisions, also closed, 1,267 and 1,214, respectively.

The regional WLB revised an earlier back-to-work order to stress that unionists were to return "at once".

The board previously warned that a grievance hearing scheduled July 5 would not be held unless production were resumed before that date. WLB officials reported the men erroneously understood they had until July 4 to comply.

Heads Utility Firm

AKRON, June 30—Directors of the Ohio Edison Co., light and power utility serving central and southeastern Ohio, today announced the election of Walter H. Sammis as president, succeeding A. C. NEARLY 200 PERISHED WHEN SHIP SUNK IN '42

By The Associated Press.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 30 — The U. S. destroyer Ingraham, which went down as the result of a collision in a fog near the Canadian coast in 1942, sank in 25 seconds and only a handful of the more than 200 men aboard the smart new craft survived.

Censorship today permitted publication of this information. The sinking was announced in Washington Aug. 27, 1942, without detail.

Torn by explosions from her own munitions, the 1,600-ton Ingraham went down in one of the swiftest sinkings in maritime records.

Soldiers Get Long Terms

MOBILE, Ala., June 30 — Three Cincinnati Negro soldiers, among nine convicted of participating in a gun battle with white military police at Brookley field May 24, Thursday were sentenced to terms of from 18 to 25 years at hard labor and dishonorably discharged from service by an army court martial.

Kill Moths the Double-Sure Bug-a-boo Way!

SPRAY 79c plus 75c CRYSTALS

Either one is deadly to the moth tribe. But in combination... Bug-a-boo Spray plus Crystals... they will keep all precious clothes and blankets safe from moths, moth worms and moth eggs wherever hiding. Spray first liberally with Bug-a-boo, then hang Bug-a-boo Moth Crystals in clothes closet or chest. The piney fragrance lasts throughout the life of the crystals. No clinging, moth ball odor.

KIWANIS GIVEN 'PEEP' AT B-29

Details Of 'Super-Fortress' Bombers Described

Kiwanians opened the cabin door, so to speak, and looked into the army air force's new B-29 bomber through the medium of a talk by Lt. R. J. Crane at the club's luncheon meeting Thursday in the Travelers hotel.

The Wright field army officer, here for the "Parade for Victory" caravan that was in the Diamond for two days recruiting civilian workers for Dayton air centers, trcaed the history of the big "super-Forts" that recently raided Yawata steel center in Japan.

He told how the ship developed from the drawing boards of the experimental station at Dayton, discussed the pressurized cabin—which keeps an even interior air density despite the altitude—and reduced many of the technical details to layman's words.

"The plane is a brand new job," he declared. "It is not a blown-up B-17. Everything on it is the last word in equipment. It costs approximately $1,150,000 to construct."

"It captures the vivid imagination of the airman," he said. "The B-29 is a huge job. The spread from wing tip to wing tip is a greater distance than covered by the Wright brothers in their first flight in 1903."

The discussion was augmented by Lt. J. G. Mowrey, also of the air service command at Wright field, who is associated with Lt. Crane in the "Parade to Victory" display, which was here Wednesday and Thursday.

He explained the purpose of Wright field and the need for 3,000 civilians to accept positions in the air service command.

The air corps officers were introduced by Robert Guyton. A brief business session was conducted by Ira Birbeck, who announced the appointment of Ralph Betts, principal of East Liverpool High school, as secretary to succeed Frank Robinson, resigned.

5,474 Here Saw Show Of 'Parade For Victory'

Officials with the "Parade for Victory" caravan said 5,474 persons inspected the display of arms and war goods Wednesday and Thursday on the Diamond.

Here in the interest of enrolling civilian workers for vital war jobs at the Dayton air force centers, the caravan attracted a large number of applicants, resulting in 23 placements in all. There were 65 persons interviewed for jobs.

The caravan of three large trailers and accompanying trucks and equipment left this morning for Cambridge, the next stop in the tour.

SEVEN ON ARMY SHIP HELD IN EXPORT PLOT

By The Associated Press.

BOSTON, June 30—United States customs officials boarded an army transport ship in harbor Thursday, arrested seven civilian crew members and confiscated nearly $10,000 worth of merchandise which the men allegedly planned to sell on the European black market at a profit of 500 to 600 percent.

Prosecuting officials believe it is the first case of its kind in the nation since Pearl Harbor.

The men were brought before United States Commissioner Martin P. Hall, charged with violating the export control act of 1940, which prohibits shipment of merchandise outside the United States without a license.

Customs officials said the merchandise—women's rayon hose, lipsticks, razor blades, wrist watches, cigaret lighters, raincoats and women's and children's clothing—were smuggled on the ship in big laundry bags and hidden in the hold and in the crew members' berths.

RURAL CAMP WOMEN ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Special To The Review.

LISBON, June 30—Mrs. Cecile Brown Hoff of Columbiana was elected president, and Mrs. Don Freshley of Alliance, secretary, at the reunion held here Tuesday of the 30 women who attended the rural homemakers' camp.

Mrs. H. L. Reuter, past president, presided for the business session when the election was held. Miss Erma Ramseyer, home demonstration agent for Columbiana county, announced plans for this year's camp, Aug. 3-6, at Camp Craig in Medina county.

The camp session will be open to rural homemakers from Columbiana, Holmes, Summit, Medina, Ashland, Wayne and Lorain counties and any woman interested in attending may contact Miss Ramseyer before July 21 at the agricultural extension office in the courthouse.

Craft work will be featured, and there will be several prominent speakers.

Diplomatic Exchange Set

WASHINGTON, June 30—The Argentine ambassador, Adrian C. Escobar, announced Thursday that arrangements have been completed for the repatriation exchange of Argentine and German diplomats and other officials. The exchange, due to take place in Lisbon, Portugal, next month, is, he said, the culmination of efforts begun immediately after Argentina broke relations with Germany and Japan January 25, 1944.

Ex-Count Drops Suit

LOS ANGELES, June 30—Court Haugwitz-Reventlow, former Danish count, Thursday filed a dismissal of his suit against his former wife, Barbara Hutton Grant, dime store heiress and wife of Actor Cary Grant, in which he had sought control of the rearing and education of their son Lance, 9. No reason was given for the request.

The earliest map on record was engraved in copper by Anaximander of Miletus about 580 B.C.

Paralysis Victim Safe In Lung After Speedy Repairs Check Leaks

By The Associated Press.

GROESBECK, Tex., June 30—Troy Lewis, 18-year-old paralysis victim, was "glad to be back" in his iron lung today after a hectic two hours and 37 minutes out of the respirator.

The apparatus, which had not been functioning properly for two weeks, broke down yesterday. A call for help was made to Parkland hospital in Dallas, 100 miles way, and Russell Nye, hosptial superintendent, sent Technician Cecil Wren and Nurse Mildred White to the scene in a state patrol car.

Near Corsicana, a casing on the speeding machine blew out, but the 100-mile run was made in less than two hours. Wren discovered five holes at creases in the bellows.

Garageman John Lee was rushed to the Lewis home, where he performed "the fastest job I ever did" in patching the leaks. Lewis had feared he would live only a few hours out of the respirator.

FIRST INSTITUTE HELD BY HEALTH CHAIRMEN

Special To The Review.

NEW CUMBERLAND, June 30—Chairmen of the Hancock County Tuberculosis league held their first institute Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hill, league nurse.

The program, conducted by Mrs. J. Harold Taylor, county secretary, was held to give workers a more comprehensive knowledge of tuberculosis, how to recognize it and its treatment. Post-war planning for tuberculosis control in West Virginia also was discussed.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Don Stewart, with the following chairmen attending:

Mrs. Frank N. Richmond, Chester; Mrs. Wood Moore, Pughtown; Mrs. R. N. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Williamson and Mrs. Kenneth Hill, New Cumberland, and Mrs. L. J. Miller, Mrs. Leon E. Albert, Mrs. E. D. Rothrock, Mrs. Andrew McLaughlin and Mrs. Taylor, Hollidays Cove.

Water May Hit Plane Plant

CLEVELAND, June 30—Production in the Fisher aircraft plant at Cleveland airport was threatened today by a water shortage. Cause of the emergency was attributed to sprinkling of lawns and gardens by residents and inadequate facilities for pumping water out of Lake Erie.

FIVE-CENT TOP DUE ON COFFEE

OPA To Freeze Prices For All Public Eating Places

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—Most of America's public eating places will be placed under the office of price administration's "freeze" on prices a month hence.

OPA's regulations already are in effect in many areas. The agency announced Thursday night that it plans to extend the program to virtually all the nation's eating and drinking spots.

This means restaurants and drinking spots must hold their prices to the levels charged the week of April 4-10, 1943.

'Voluntary' Plan Broke Down

The ruling on coffee was one of the principal changes ordered on a countrywide basis as freeze provisions were extended for the first time to two southern Ohio districts, including Cincinnati.

Cincinnati District OPA Director John E. Robinson said he has received no official notification of the freeze order, but that he has been expecting it and had planned to institute a freeze in southwestern Ohio on his own authority when he learned of the imminence of the order from Washington.

A program of "voluntary compliance" broke down, Robinson said, adding that the smaller restaurants gave more trouble than the large, widely-known establishments.

Must List 40 Basic Items

The ruling on coffee makes the price nationwide and restaurants must serve both cream and sugar with the beverage for a 5-cent piece.

The OPA also ordered that April 4-10, 1943, base ceiling prices must be posted by all eating and drinking establishments for 40 basic menu items served and that no restaurant can charge higher prices than those of the base period because of an increase in quantity or an improvement in quality.

Explaining this ruling, OPA said the "substitution of ingredients in any food item or beverage does not make it a new item and permit a higher price."

The National restaurant industry advisory committee "concurred in the view that it would be undesirable to permit these practices because of inflationary results," the OPA added.

COMMITTEEMAN BACK FROM G.O.P. SESSIONS

Russell C. Heddleston, 18th district state central committeeman, and Mrs. Heddleston have returned from Chicago, where they attended the Republican convention.

Mr. Heddleston served as honorary sergeant-at-arms. They attended a dinner Monday night in the Boulevard roof of the Hotel Stevens, honoring Mayor James Garfield Stewart of Cincinnati, and following the nomination, attended a reception for Gov. and Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey and Gov. and Mrs. John Bricker in the ball room at the Hotel Stevens. Entertainment was continuous at the Dewey headquarters, according to Mr. Heddleston, who said Olsen and Johnson and the Brooklyn Cowboys performed.

More Blue Stamps Ready

WASHINGTON, June 30—A new series of five 10-point blue stamps—W8 through Z8, and A5—will be valid Saturday and good indefinitely for buying processed foods, the office of price administration said today. Currently valid blue stamps A8 through V8 in War Ration Book Four also are good indefinitely.

Will Buy Weekly Paper

WADSWORTH, June 30—State Rep. H. Jerry Hall Thursday night announced he is completing plans to buy the weekly Wadsworth Banner-Press and incorporate it with the Wadsworth News into one weekly newspaper, the Wadsworth News-Banner.

Wellsville Soldier Says Italy Would Embrace Democracy

By RUTH URIE

Italy wants most of all the kind of government the United States enjoys—a democracy!

That is the opinion of Sgt. Pete Gardner, Wellsville infantryman back home after 15 months' service overseas.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gardner, 511 Buckeye ave., the veteran declared that Italy—the native land of his parents—is a "fair" country, but probably would be a better nation under peacetime conditions.

Sgt. Gardner, who participated in several major battles in Italy, said the natives were kind and helpful to the Americans, and he recalled that they showed the soldiers their trails and routes in the mountains, they opened their vineyards and orchards for the boys and they "had a human side, much like folks in America."

The soldier quite by accident met King Emmanuel. On a sightseeing trip in the palace at Caserto, Sgt. Gardner and three other soldiers had strayed away from their guide and were looking around on their own. A small man near them asked if any of them spoke Italian and Sgt. Gardner answered. In the course of the conversation the small man revealed his identity, and the soldiers were much surprised, as they had pictured the king to be a large man. He conducted them personally on a tour of the palace.

For recreation during rest periods the men enjoyed volley ball, softball, basketball and boxing in their battalion day rooms. On Sundays they were sure of a concert by one or more Italian musicians, who would walk four or five miles to play their guitars or mandolins and sing for them.

As a reward the musicians were given something to eat. Once in a while, when they were lucky enough to get batteries for a radio belonging to one of the men, the soldiers would listen to recorded American music broadcast by an Italian radio station.

Distribution of mail finds the men eager, especially when they are on the front lines where the letters follow them. Another important link with their homeland is the papers sent by relatives and friends.

Sgt. Gardner said he had the good fortune to keep up with the home town news through The Review. "There was always one grand rush when a Cannons Mill boy got his copy of The Review, for it was a race to see whether he or myself, a Leetonia boy or another boy would get it first.

"No matter who got it, each of us would be given a page of it and then would sit down in the middle of the company street and literally 'devour' the news in it." The infantryman saw the cathedral at Pompeii and the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius.

He was never wounded, but Sgt. Gardner said "lady luck stayed with me," citing one instance of his company being near a monastery when it blew up. He participated in other major battles, including Salerno and Naples.

He expressed indignation against the German soldiers for the manner in which they wage warfare, emphasizing that while the ruthlessness shown in killing Allied soldiers is terrible enough, it is not as awful as the murder of women and innocent children.

He recalled the shooting of a little Italian boy near their camp, who had befriended him. The little lad, at the request of Sgt. Gardner and three buddies, had brought a dish of cooked potatoes.

The boy was starting home with the empty dish and some money the soldiers had given him when a German sniper shot him.

"On another occasion in one of the towns where the Nazis had retreated, the American and Allied forces found riddled bodies of women and children in the streets," he declared.

As for captured German prisoners, he said in most cases the older soldiers usually are cooperative, but the younger ones are the hardest ones to handle.

"They are arrogant and stubborn and give their captors a lot of trouble unless they are made to take off their shoes and belts, which makes it difficult for them to run away or to use their hands."

ONE-MAN ARMY. How 22-year-old Lt. David Lindell Rooks of Zion City, Ill., with a lone jeep driver for an "army", captured Valognes, France, and took 40 German prisoners has been told in dispatches from the invasion front.

Sgt. Gardner said he finds people here are too complacent regarding the war. "I don't think a good many Americans know there is a war going on, or there wouldn't be strikes and other disputes."

His parents have lived in America about 40 years, his father arriving in 1901, and his mother in 1904. Sgt. Gardner was returned to the States on June 9 under the rotation furlough plan, and he will report July 9 to Camp Butner, N. C. He has been in the army since June 22, 1942.

Melon Prices Controlled

WASHINGTON, June 30—Retail sales of sweet peppers, hot house cucumbers and a wide variety of melons were brought under price control for the first time by the office of price administration today. It said the new regulation, effective July 5, will bring sharp reductions in prevailing prices for melons and sweet peppers and a slight cut in cucumber prices. The order covers all kinds of melons except watermelons, which already are under price control at retail.

Congress granted a charter to the American Red Cross in 1905.

3 WAR LEADERS WARN COUNTRY OF TOUGH FIGHT

Stress That Any Production Slump Will Delay Victory In Roosevelt Report

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—President Roosevelt Thursday night made public a report from his top military commanders warning the nation that "there is still a tough fight ahead for us" in the war.

"The battles now in prograss entail heavy losses in material which American industry must replace," the report said. "and any slackening in the needed production only will delay ultimate victory."

The report, warning against over-optimism on the home front, reached the President from Gen. George C. Marshall, chief-of-staff, Adm. Ernest King and Gen. H. H. Arnold of the air forces, the three United States joint chiefs-of-staff.

They said that upon their return from the fighting in Normandy they discovered "a state of mind in this country against which we believe the public should be warned".

The report said favorable news from the fighting fronts appears to have started a public feeling that the war is as good as won and declared the prospects of victory will be cut down unless that idea is checked immediately.

Visited Normandy Front

The three top men of America's armed forces declared the war "is not yet won; it will be won sooner if everybody in war work sticks to his job till complete victory has been attained".

The three military commanders visited the Normandy front shortly after the Allies smashed into the French coast.

Yesterday's report to President Roosevelt was their first detailed analysis of the home front reaction to the invasion.

They said the progress of the fighting deserves "the highest gratification" of America, but warned a home front letdown may prove disastrous.

"Our forces of land, sea and air," the report said, "many of them recently in action for the first time, have shown not only the courage that was expected of them but a toughness and technical skill that has made them more than a match for the veterans whom they opposed."

Bear's 3 Equal Twins

CINCINNATI, O.—Triplets were twins at the Cincinnati zoo when Olga, a Russian brown bear, gave birth to three cubs. The youngsters, named Timoshenko, Igo and Tanya, were a surprise to zoo officials, who knew all along that Olga had at least two. Triplets are about equivalent of twins for bears, who usually have two offspring at a time.

CHEWING THE FAT. Demonstrating how the United States army contributes to the nationwide used household fat salvage program, S/Sgt. Claude E. Denney, cook attached to the Seventh service command at Ft. Snelling, Minnesota, pours salvaged used fats into a tin container. Interested witnesses are two visiting Polish WACs (Pestkas), Pvt. Vodwiga Opolska and Sgt. Wanda Skalinska, accompanied by Sgt. Edward Barstow, mess sergeant, who conducted the Polish visitors through the reception center kitchens. The visit to the kitchens followed a troop review at which the young women were honor guests.

A Quick Glance At The World's News . . .

From Washington—

May Ship Output Sets Record

The biggest month in naval building history and a 26 percent jump in the "top urgency" program for heavy artillery were achieved in May, the war production board reported Thursday.

Completion of navy ships climbed to an all-time high of more than 400,000 displacement tons, or nearly 100,000 tons over the previous peak of last November.

The tonnage output was 58 percent higher than in April and 3 percent greater than was called for in the May production schedule.

Landing vessel deliveries reached 198,000 tons—more than 50 percent above the record set in April.

Arms production generally was 1 percent behind schedule, but 1 percent ahead of April.

Eight Fund Bills Signed

President Roosevelt Thursday signed eight appropriations bills totaling $19,317,322,000 including $15,434,814,000 for war department military establishments.

The other appropriation measures include labor department and federal security, $1,112,644,000; war agencies, $1,030,937,000; deficiencies and supplementals, $762,491,000; state, justice and commerce departments, $241,937,000; agriculture, $562,145,000; interior department, $103,239,000, and District of Columbia, $69,111,000.

Around The Nation—

Wisconsin Set Record

PHILADELPHIA—The Philadelphia navy yard disclosed Thursday that it commissioned the super-battleship Wisconsin only 18 weeks after she was launched — breaking its own record and probably the world record.

In normal times the lapse between launching and commissioning would be about a year. The Wisconsin was christened last Dec. 7.

Around Ohio—

Catholic Charities Hit $84,000

YOUNGSTOWN—First campaign in the new Youngstown diocese for Catholic charities amounted to $84,000, it has been announced at a conference between Bishop James A. McFadden and diocesan priests.

While the goal was $100,000, diocesan officials called the drive "very successful". Contributions were nearly double last year's $4,000.

From Abroad—

1,100 Square Miles Freed

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force—Allied armies have liberated approximately 1,100 square miles of France, counting Thursday's British advances, or slightly more than one-half of 1 percent of the nation's 212,659-square mile area.

The Allies hold approximately 125 miles of French seacoast. The total French seacoast measures about 1,950 miles.

YOUTH RALLY STUDIES 'DISRUPTIVE ACTIONS'

By The Associated Press.

LAKESIDE, O., June 30 — Discussion of disruptive influences in America occupied delegates at sessions of the quadrennial Christian Youth Conference of North America Thursday.

A symposium on "America's Divisions" and an address on "The Human Rift" by Channing H. Tobias of New York, senior secretary of the national council of the Y. M. C. A., were features of the program.

Nearly 1,000 delegates, representing some 10,000,000 Protestant youth of 42 denominations, were advised by Dr. Roswell P. Barnes of New York, associate general secretary of the Federal Council of Churches, "to go beneath the symptoms of world chaos and attack the moral sickness of society with the same self-sacrifice and cooperation that war requires."

Poland granted religious freedom in 1573.

SCOUTS ENTER CAMP FOR 3-DAY PROGRAM

Palestine Boy Will Be Given Eagles Award Saturday

Registration got under way this afternoon as Columbiana county Boy Scouts opened their 14th annual camporee at the McKinley reservation near Lisbon. Sponsors said 250 boys are expected to participate.

An invitation was extended to parents and guests to attend the special camp fire entertainment Saturday night at 2 when Scouts and leaders will stage an entertainment.

Chairman H. J. Gallimore announced that an Eagle Scout award will be made during the evening to an East Palestine boy and that the only Sea Scout unit in Columbiana county council will give a demonstration of setting up a "land ship".

The daily programs will be devoted to training and practice of many Scout activities, as well as swimming and camping camp-making and cookery. The boys will break camp Sunday.

Plan Vets' High School

BOSTON — Returning Boston veterans of World war II will have their own high school to complete courses which were interrupted by induction. Instead of returning to public high schools, where some might be embarrassed because of their age, the veterans will attend classes at Boston Teachers' college.

Close Call

PRESQUE ISLE, Me.—Arky, the tomcat mascot of the army's air service command base here, can hear perfectly, but he has no ears. They were burned off one day when, with characteristic curiosity, he stuck his head into a transmitter board—and was floored by 2,700 volts.

EAST CHICAGO YOUTH TOPS NAVY'S AIRMEN

By The Associated Press.

ABOARD CARRIER FLAGSHIP OFF MARIANAS, June 22 — (Delayed)—The boy who wouldn't go home when he had a chance because "there are just a few things I want to clear up first" now is the navy's top fighter ace by a wide margin.

He's Lt. (jg) Alexander Vrcaiu of East Chicago, Ind., who shot down six Japanese dive-bombers in a single day in the west Marianas June 19 to bring his total bag of Japanese planes to 18. He added another in battle over the Japanese fleet June 20 to bring his present bag to 19.

(The previous navy record for planes shot down was held by Lt. (jg) Ira Kepford of Muskegon, Mich. Capt. Richard Bong of Poplar, Wis., is top army ace with 27 planes shot down.)

Sporting Angle
By BOB SHAFFER

Stars in the service:

James "Jimmy" Jordon, all-time Chester High school basketball great, now one of Uncle Sam's navy V-12 trainees, is home on a short leave from his duties at the University of North Carolina. Tipping the beam at 195 pounds, the former all-West Virginia cage star, 25 pounds over his playing weight when he was scorching the nets for the Purple and Gold, is due to report for continuance of his training next Tuesday.

Jordan and three of his former teammates are celebrating "old home week". Dick Coe, also in the navy's V-12 program, and Dick Martin and Dave McMillan, the latter one of the members of the Purple and Gold's unbeaten and unscored upon eleven last fall, also are home for short stays from their service chores. . . .

Third Baseman on the Riverview Florists last summer, Seaman Paul Tomlinson has been watching his former mates and foes in the City league race this week. . . . Clark "Lefty" Huffman, City league's leading twirler last year when he toiled for the Golden Star champions, is back home from his west coast war job and appeared as pinchhitter in Tuesday's losing game to Irishtown.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the 19-day meet of the Fort Steuben Jockey club which opens on July 15.

While workers are busily engaged in a general "face-lifting" of the half-mile track in the west end of Steubenville, Joseph Tobin and Charles Wolfe, owners and operators, are completing arrangements to assure tri-state turf enthusiasts a high caliber racing card.

With the official racing family of River Downs of Cincinnati scheduled to supervise the Fort Steuben twilight running, barn facilities are being whipped into shape to accommodate 400 or more hay eaters.

Improvements to the grandstand to assure the best possible view of the track probably is the best portion of the "face-lifting" operations now in progress. Box-seats, which last year obstructed the view of spectators, have been removed, and also the judges stand, which marred the fans' perfect vision of the track. A full view of the entire oval from any seat in the grandstand now is possible.

Posttime will be at 4:15, with the exception of Saturdays when the time will be 2:15 p. m. A card of eight classy races will be run daily.

A string of three or fourth fair-sized bass caught in one outing is something of which any angler is proud, but when he lures a string of 11 beauties in a single day, that's extraordinary.

Well, Logan Davis of Pleasant Heights, brother of Kenny Davis, ex-prize fighter and now in the navy, recently pulled the "lucky 11" out of Pine lake in a single session. One tipped the scales at better than two pounds, and he not only had enough to give his own family a nice feed, but supplied the neighbors with several of his prize catch.

HOGAN THREAT TO 'BIG FOUR' IN GOLF OPEN

72-Hole Tournament Opens Today In Chicago With $3,000 First Prize

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, June 30—Golf competition returned to normal at the Edgewater course today as 57 pros and amateurs—all limbered up mentally and physically after trying to figure out who did what and why in the last two days of confused team play—began the first round of a good, old-fashioned 72-hole tournament for the Chicago Victory National championship.

Threatening golf's "big four"—Jug McSpaden, Byron Nelson, Sammy Byrd and Craig Wood—were such gents as Johnny Revolta, Ky Laffoon, Pvt. Chick Harbert and Lt. Ben Hogan. On the basis of what they did during the team matches, they rank as favorites. The top amateurs in the field were Chuck Kocsis and Ed Furgol of Detroit, Wilford Wehrle of Racine, Wis., Steve Kocach, the Pittsburgh steel worker, and Bob Cochrane, St. Louis newspaper man.

Shooting For $100,000

The McSpaden-Nelson-Byrd-Wood combine so far has accumulated $53,913 in winnings and has a chance to increase this immeasurably throughout the summer by shooting for a jackpot of about $100,000 in at least six more tournaments. The stake in the Victory meet is $3,000.

Bantam Ben Hogan may be the man to cut the corner the "big four" has on titles. Despite a recess from tournament golf for almost two years while he was winning a lieutenancy in the army air forces, little Ben banged 67-70 during the last two days to serve notice of contention.

Among other leading scorers during the two days of team matches were McSpaden with 64-70—134; Revolta, 67-67—134; Nelson 68-67—134; Jim Foulis, Chicago, 70-67—137; Laffoon 68-69—137; Jimmy Hines, 68-72—140, and Ed Dudley, 70-70—140. In all, Edgewater's par of 35-36—71 was equaled or better-er 31 times.

Laffoon and Kovach won the pro-amateur title with a combined 36-hole score of 282, while the pro-woman crown went to Revolta and Lt. Patty Berg of the marines, who yesterday shot a 74, best woman's score of the meet. The Revolta-Berg tally was 287.

'Matty Greatest Of Pitchers', Declares His Old Battery Mate

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 30—Roger Bresnahan, who laid aside his big league catching mitt some 30 years ago, now has his hat in the political ring—but his heart still is in baseball.

And the 64-year-old Irishman, who has seen baseball talent come and go for almost half a century, still believes his old battery mate, Christy Mathewson, was the greatest pitcher of them all.

Bresnahan, who gained fame as a great backstop for the New York Giants, later managed the St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs, and then owned the Kansas City franchise for 10 years, is running for county commissioner in Toledo (Lucas county) Ohio.

'Matty Would Have Loved This'

Now a brewing company representative, Bresnahan came back to the Polo Grounds this week for a guest appearance at the War Bond show. As he donned his uniform, the aging Irishman said:

"Too bad Matty can't be here. He would have loved this. There was a great man.

"Matty was the greatest pitcher of all time. Walter Johnson, Cy Young, Lefty Grove, Carl Hubbell—they were good, very good but, none could touch Mathewson. There was only one Matty.

"Matty never had an equal, particularly in a pinch. He was an absolute master. Matty was not a fire ball pitcher, but he had a world of speed when he preferred to cut loose. Why, do you know he holds the season strikeout record in the National league? He fanned 267 in 1903. He struck out 16 in a nine-inning game in 1904, and his lifotime total is 2,505.

Couldn't Hit 'Fade-Away'

"His famous 'fade-away' no batter could hit. There never was another pitch like it, except Hubbell's screwball.But Hub was no Matty."

The most remarkable pitching performance he ever witnessed?

"Matty again," the Duke of Tralee, Ireland, replied, "the Giants were in the thick of a pennant fight with Pittsburgh. In one of the late inings we were ahead, 3-2, when a hit and a couple of errors put three Pirates on and none out.

"Tommy Leach, Fred Clarke and Kitty Bransfield, three great batters, were coming up. Matty whiffed Leach on three inside pitches, Clarke with three consecutive fade-aways, and Bransfield on three drop curves around the knees."

ATTORNEY CLIPS OWN RACE TROTTING MARK

By The Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, June 30—Attorney, tops of the two-year-old money winners at pacing in 1943, still is collecting the coin.

The Wilkco farm's brown son of Volomite made his first appearance of the season at North Randall's Grand Circuit track yesterday and coasted to straight heat victories in the $2,484 Matron stake.

However, the youngster's coasting in the first mile heat didn't stop him from clipping half a second off the record of 2:05 that he hung up for himself last season.

Miss Sarah Abbey, featured in the current film, "Home in Indiana," lived up to her Hollywood ballyhoo in grabbing both heats of the 20 trot. The property of Walter J. Michaels of Bucyrus, O., Miss Sarah was out in front all the way.

REYNOLDS HURLS 6-TO-0 SHUTOUT

Tribe Ace Blanks Athletics; Teams To Conclude Series

By The Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30—Allie Reynolds' return to something resembling his 1943 form has raised the hopes of the Cleveland Indians that their problems are about to be solved.

The husky Oklahoman, who topped the American league in strikeouts last year, was counted upon to carry a major share of the mound labors this season, but his ineffectiveness during the first two months of the campaign is one of the reasons the Indians are in last place.

Yesterday Reynolds turned in a three-hit shutout as the Tribe defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-0. This performance, following a 3-to-1 triumph over Detroit and a 2-to-1 defeat by Chicago, indicated the 26-year-old fireballer is ready to resume his place as one of the circuit's best twirlers.

The victory broke a four-game losing streak and narrowed the gap between first and last positions to seven-and-a-half games

Al Smith hurls for the Indians against Buck Newsom as the clubs meet in the final game of the series tonight.

WALTERS SEEKS 13TH WIN; TO FACE BRAVES

By The Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, June 30 — Bucky Walters will try for his 13th win of the year for the Cincinnati Reds tonight as the Boston Braves resume their current series here.

Either Jim Tobin or Charley Barrett will be the Boston pitcher.

Bob Coleman, Boston manager, indicated he might shake up his batting order as a result of the twin defeats suffered in the Wednesday night charity doubleheader.

Death Of Yanks Exaggerated As Club Nails 'Cousins' From Missouri Again

M'Carthy Clan Trips Browns, 1-0, For Sixth Straight Win To Near Top; Bucs, Giants Play 1-To-1 Tie

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer

Reports of the New York Yankees' death appear to have been greatly exaggerated!

The world champions today seek their seventh straight and a clean sweep of the series from the leading St. Louis Browns.

Only half a step from the American league's last-place graveyard two weeks ago, the New Yorkers have pulled out of their tailspin and captured eight of their last nine with a six-game win streak that includes two in a row over their 1944 "cousins" from Missouri whom they have topped seven times in nine tries.

Dubiel Hurls Shutout

Walt "Monk" Dubiel hurled the McCarthy clan to within two and a half games of the top yesterday with a brilliant two-hit 1-to-0 shutout made possible by Rollie Hemsley's line single to center scoring Bud Metheny.

Shutout pitching was the order of the day, with Allie Reynolds of Cleveland hanging a 6-to-0 whitewash on Philadelphia; Detroit's Hal Newhouser stopping Washington, 4-0, for his 11th victory, and Bill Lee tossing the Phillies to a 1-to-1 now over George Munger of the St. Louis Cardinals on a 10th-inning single by Jimmy Wasdell.

Tex Hughson collected his 11th decision as the Boston Red Sox shaded Chicago, 5-4, but Francis "Red" Barrett had to turn in a fancy four-inning relief chore to save the game.

Bucs, Giants Tie, 1-1

The New York-Pittsburgh game in the National ended in a 1-to-1 tie, with Bill Voiselle opposing Nick Strincevich, called at the end of the fifth because of rain. Brooklyn, Boston, Chicago and Cincinnati were not scheduled in the National.

Reynolds chipped in with two doubles and a single in downing Russ Christopher of the A's. It was a costly defeat for the Mackmen, who lost the services of First Baseman Dick Siebert for several weeks when he was spiked on the right leg and had to be carried from the field.

Sport Chatter

NEW YORK, June 30—Overseas sports roundup:

Fleet postoffice.

Francis E. Buckley, who last was heard of when he quarterbacked the all-navy team in Bermuda's Lily bowl football classic next January, sends word from the central Pacific that the Seabees out there would like some football uniforms. "The Seabee Athletic association is in its infancy, but in competition with other service teams has made an excellent record," Buckley writes. "Last week the boxing team defeated the army air force; the track team placed third in an 11-team A.A.U. meet, May 29th. Plans are under way to place a football team in competition this fall. The only drawback is the lack of uniforms. I'd appreciate any ideas you might give us in respect to schools that have abandoned football." Well, Princeton dropped out and from what we saw last fall the Tigers had very little besides uniforms.

Mr. Fullerton

North Africa.

Two letters recently received at the St. Louis Browns office from doughboys of an infantry outfit in North Africa—perhaps indicating some association between the temperature there and that of Sportsmans park. "Dear gang: Go get 'em. This is the Brownies' year and how! We're so sure that you'll keep on hustling in there that we are going to hustle it up over here to get back in time to see you play and win the series. To perpetuate this, we have organized the following club: Browns Boosters club, Doughfoot division, North African theater." This bore 110 signatures, and 112 members of another company in the same division wrote: "Go get that pennant! This is to inform you that the undersigned GI's have formed another Browns Overseas Boosters club, called the Tired Foot division. Our slogan in this club is: Berlin for us; world's series for the Browns."

Excerpts from a letter to Bob (Ohio State Journal) Hooey from Lt. (jg) Phill Bucklew, the columbus pro football man, who was one of the first in the invasion: "We lost three of our original gang at Anzio. Ens. Jerry Donnell, one of our '40 Bulls, was gone. The others, Rip Howe of Culver Stockton, and Auz Pirre, coach at Catholic university, still are 'missing.' Three of our beginners remain operational, big John Tripson of Detroit Lions, Anderson of Utah and myself. It's a proud lot, Bob, and whether athletics continue in my life or not, this has been the happiest and hardest team play with real men. We feel that perhaps it's just something we trained for through school and pro ball—and lived up to."

CIVIL WAR VET, 102, DIES

NORWALK, O., June 30—Samuel Johnson, 102-year-old Negro, Huron county's last surviving Civil war veteran, died Thursday. His sister, Mrs. Olivia Day, was 103 when she died last winter.

HENS' RALLY SLASHES BREWERS' LEAD IN AA

By The Associated Press.

The skidding Milwaukee Brewers no doubt would be just as happy if they weren't booked to tangle again tonight with the hard-pressing Toledo Mud Hens, who have jolted them three times in as many evenings and run a winning streak to eight straight.

There is, however, one consolation for the Brews, whose formerly fat American Association lead has been sliced to four games. Tonight they probably will not have to face Pitchers Cliff Fannin or Bill Seinsoth, whose relief work has caused much grief in the Casey Stengel baseball family this week.

The Mud Hen pair collaborated last night in handing the leaders their fifth defeat in seven starts as Toledo won, 7-6, with four runs in the seventh and eighth frames.

Jack Creel scattered nine Kansas City blows as Columbus whipped the Blues, 9-4, to remain half a game behind the second place Hens.

Indianapolis dropped its 12th straight contest, to Minneapolis, 5-3, Pitcher Bob Logan contributing to his own downfall by uncorking a wild pitch with the bases loaded in the fifth.

St. Paul's engagement at Louisville was rained out.

Brazil was named after the dyewood which was the early settlers' chief export.

ELKS, IRISHTOWN TO CLASH TODAY

Riverview-Golden Star Tilt Rained Out Thursday

With the general complexion of the race looking on the upgrade for them following victories over the league-leading Golden Star Dairymen, Elks and Irishtown will clash today in what stacks up as a "crucial" contest for both clubs in the City league scramble.

The Lodgemen, back in third place after their 5-to-0 shutout over the leaders on Wednesday, can slip into the runner up slot today with a triumph, while a win for the Irish will knot them in second place with the Riverview Florists.

Managers Willis Hall and Thayer McDaniel of Elks today were looking for a pitcher to fill the shoes of Harry Simcox, their ace righthander who today shoves off for training in Uncle Sam's navy.

Thursday's game between the Riverview Florists and Golden Star was postponed because of wet grounds.

The Gallup Poll Finds:

PEOPLE DISLIKE NEW WMC JOB CONTROL SETUP

53% Disapprove Of Method Effective Saturday For Channeling Workers

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute Of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., June 30—Although the American public has in public opinion surveys during the past two years accepted by a majority vote the principle of a civilian manpower draft, the majority today disapprove of the way Washington proposes to handle the manpower problem under the new ruling which goes into effect by Saturday.

This ruling attempts to relieve manpower shortages by regulating the employment of new persons by firms with more than eight on the payroll.

The present public reaction, as determined by a survey of all classes and groups of voters from coast to coast, is revealed in the responses to this question:

"After July 1 no employer hiring more than eight people can hire men between 18 and 65 without getting approval of the U. S. employment service. Do you approve or disapprove of this measure?"

APPROVE	33%
DISAPPROVE	53
NO OPINION	14

The adverse public reaction revealed in the above table indicates that the war manpower commission has an important selling job to do on the public to gain acceptance for the new ruling and to avoid difficulty in administering it.

Analysis of the reasons people give for disapproving of the measure shows that voters feel that "business and industry are already hamstrung by government regulation," that "this regulation merely adds to the red tape," that "this just passes the buck to employers."

In past surveys an important element in the public's thinking has been the vital factor of need.

Today's low vote of approval is also undoubtedly a reflection of the public's reaction to the successful invasion of the continent, as well as increasing news of cuts or contemplated cuts in war production schedules.

The war manpower commission is thus presented with the problem of defending its method of handling the manpower problem and of convincing the public as to the present need for its new regulation.

WINDS FROM CANADA END OHIO HEAT WAVE

By The Associated Press.

A heat wave that sent the mercury to record heights for two days apparently has been broken by cool winds moving in from northwestern Canada.

In Columbus, Meteorologist George W. Mindling said there has been a 10-degree drop throughout the entire Plains States section, where 100-degree temperatures were common during the early part of the week. The mercury started to fall yesterday in many sections of Ohio.

Cincinnati was the first city to get relief. A thunderstorm, striking in mid-afternoon, lowered the temperature from 96 degrees to 77, and brought a quarter-inch of rainfall, the first heavy downpour since mid-May.

Springfield, where Wednesday the state's high mark of 104 was reached, recorded 97. It was 93 in Columbus, where Wednesday's high—an all-time record for June—was 102.

12,000 OF JAP PLANES SHOT DOWN BY YANKS

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—American airmen have destroyed more than 12,000 Japanese planes since the war started—better than one plane shot down or bombed on the ground every two hours since the Pearl Harbor attack.

This was disclosed Thursday by a navy report that its airmen shot out of the air 5,521 Japanese warplanes since the December 7, 1941 attack on Hawaii.

In addition, the navy reported, in 1944 alone 738 Japanese planes were destroyed on the ground by bombing and strafing American fliers.

Added to the severe pounding the Jap air service has been given by navy and marine fliers are the assaults by American army aviators, who have shot down 4,103 Japanese war planes in combat and destroyed 1,724 on the ground.

Dewey 'Smartest Kid', Ex-Teacher Reveals; Had To Fight Egotism

By The Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, June 30—The Republican party has nominated for president of the United States a man remembered by his one-time high school principal as "by all odds the smartest kid in school, but so egotistical we threatened to expel him because he couldn't get along with his classmates".

"From then on he really made an effort to influence people to like him, and I would say he succeeded," reminisced C. C. Tuck, former principal of the Owosso, (Mich.) High school from which Thomas E. Dewey was graduated in 1918.

Now principal of East Cleveland's East Technical High school, Tuck has seen about 15,000 students graduated from high school, and classifies Dewey, former pupil and present friend, as "the standout among them in every way".

The governor of New York, he added, "always seemed to do everything right, but he was so egotistical—and understandably so—that none of his classmates liked him".

From a heart-to-heart talk about this problem in Tuck's office during his senior year, Dewey and the educator developed a lasting friendship.

Remembering Dewey's debating and singing abilities — he was Michigan's champion high school debater and once considered a career in opera, Tuck also recalled his knack for business.

"Tom took the Owosso agency for the Saturday Evening Post and soon was a full-time manager and had about 10 other kids doing the actual selling."

THE EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW

If She's First Lady . . .

MRS. DEWEY SET FOR 'QUIET LIFE'

Republican Nominee's Wife Holds News Conference

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 30—Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey declared Thursday that if she becomes mistress of the White House, she hopes to lead a quiet life.

Also she would have her 8- and 11-year-old sons keep their boyhood years going "as nearly normal as possible".

Never having been inside the White House, she told a news conference, she would not attempt to specify what the role of the president's wife should be.

Smartly dressed in a gray faille suit with black accessories, the wife of the Republican presidential nominee toyed with a gavel at the crowded meeting with men and women reporters. She was accompanied by her closest friend and neighbor, Mrs. Carl T. Hogan.

Mrs. Dewey said that if, and when, her husband makes any campaign tours, she will accompany him.

She told a questioner she hopes such a tour will include her birthplace, Sherman, Tex.

No Speeches Or Writing

She declined to commit herself on whether women should be given greater voice and greater opportunity of action in connection with governmental and international affairs, saying that individual women should do as they like in such matters.

Emphatically, she said she has no interest in doing any radio work, making speeches or writing for newspapers.

"I'd rather leave that to my husband," she said.

She said she has not decided whether as First Lady she might hold news conferences such as those instituted by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

However, contrary to the rule of Mrs. Roosevelt's conferences, Mrs. Dewey said if she held conferences she would admit men reporters as well as women.

Replying to a question, she said she was with her husband while he worked on his acceptance speech and that he usually discusses speeches with her in advance.

Their young sons, she said, seemed most impressed with their father because he rated a big motorcycle escort here. That was what they wanted to hear about when she talked with them by long-distance telephone, she said.

Replying to another question, Mrs. Dewey said that while her father, O. T. Hutt of Sapulpa, Okla., always had voted the Republican ticket, she thinks her mother is a Democrat.

Asked whether she herself ever voted the Democratic ticket, Mrs. Dewey replied, "I never voted until I went to New York."

She said she hasn't done much more than "say hello" to her mother since their arrival here because she just hasn't had the chance.

Asked how long it has been since she visited Owosso, Mich., Dewey's birthplace and home of his mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey, the candidate's wife replied that her mother-in-law "usually comes to see us".

Probably it is 15 years since young Mrs. Dewey has been to Owosso, she said.

The former Frances Eileen Hutt met Dewey when they were taking musical studies for one summer here.

Then they both went to New York to continue voice lessons. She sang in a chorus and eventually her husband settled down to become a lawyer, after completing law studies at night school.

Mrs. Dewey said that "some time only at home" she still sings with her husband. Their sons "sing normally in the shower", she said. Both play the piano.

The boys weed the Dewey's Victory Garden at their Pawling (N. Y.) farm, their mother said, adding that last week's rains there found the weeds "getting a little ahead" of the boys. She says she does a little work in the garden.

Declaring she has "been very busy lately", the nominee's wife said she hasn't done as much volunteer Red Cross hospital staff work in Albany as the three hours a day she did last year.

Her work, she said, is helping in operating rooms, doing the "sort of unpleasant jobs".

Mrs. Dewey said she also serves on the board of Hamilton Nursery school in New York city.

Asked whether she disliked cooking, Mrs. Dewey laughed and said that while she hasn't cooked in a lnog time, she enjoys it when she does.

Apparently self-possessed, but somewhat wary of reporters' queries, the Republican candidate's wife asserted that she likes to travel and "always" will be with her husband, wherever he goes, but will take no active part in campaigning, except to accompany him.

It is produced from the ethylene derived from coal gas or petroleum.

Firemen Noisy By Law

COFFEYVILLE, Kas.—A fellow who turned in a fire alarm by telephone made this request: "Please come as quietly as you can." Firemen said they were sorry but they had to be noisy. A regulation requires them to use a siren, and wtih siren screaming they answered the alarm.

Footnotes On Our Fighting Forces

The Military Bulletin Board

THE war shipping administration recruiting office at 1720 Euclid ave., Cleveland, issued an appeal today for "husky lads" to help sail the merchant marine ships of the Victory fleet.

New regulations permit the enlistment of boys weighing no less than 130 stripped, and at least 5 feet 4 inches in height. Boys 16 and 17½ are eligible, provided they "fatten up and stretch a bit" before applying.

To avoid forgery of applications, consent papers for boys under 21 will be mailed directly to parents or guardians for completion. Applicants may write the recruiting office, indicating where consent papers may be sent.

The merchant marine also needs more deck and engineer officers, and any able-bodied man who has had at least 14 months of qualified Great Lakes or ocean experience will be accepted for a special four-month course of intensive training leading to a license for a deck or engineer officer for ocean-going cargo vessels. Upon graduation, they are commissioned as ensigns in the maritime service before assignment.

Pfc. Dale J. Hile, son of Mrs. Hazel Hartzell, 150 Pennslyvania ave., is serving as a welder at a central India air depot near the Burma road according to an article written for the "Stabilizer", magazine issued for welders by the Lincoln Electric Co. of Cleveland, makers of the equipment.

Pvt. Hale Hile was employed by the Budd Wheel Co. and the International Conveyor Co. in Detroit, before entering the service. He is 26 and single.

Cpl. Phillip E. Huff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huff, Rogers r. d. 1, has been awarded the Good Conduct medal at Pueblo, Colo., army air base, where he is completing his training on a Liberator bomber.

Pvt. William C. Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Edgar, 709 Lincoln ave., has been graduated from the electronics course at the army air force school at Chanute field, Rantoul, Ill.

Pfc. Paul R. Smith, husband of Mrs. Beryl M. Smith, 1000 Avondale st., and Pvt. Eugene Wolfe, husband of Mrs. Inez Mae Wolfe, 446 West Seventh st., have been awarded the wings and boots of paratroopers at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Joe E. Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Andrews, 1819 St. Clair ave., has been commissioned a second lieutenant and has received the wings of a pilot at the advanced twin-engine flying school, Blytheville, Ark.

Donald A. Brown, a former East Liverpool High school student and son of Mrs. Mildred Brown, 929 Main st., Wellsville, has been assigned to the army specialized training reserve program at the University of Dayton.

2nd Lt. John E. Swisher, pilot and son of Mr. and Mrs. Comer Z. Swisher, 307 Monroe st., has completed an overseas training course at an army air base in England.

Cpl. John W. Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Armstrong, Minnesota ave., participated in the D-day invasion of France, serving as an armorer of a P-51 Mustang at an Eighth air force fighter station in England. He is a graduate of East Liverpool High school and has been in the army since Nov. 16, 1942.

Four East Liverpool men have been graduated from service schools at the U. S. naval center, Great Lakes, Ill. Those in the basic engineering school were:

Seaman Joseph Reed, 31, husband of Mrs. Ruth Reed, 1253 Erie st.; Robert Malcolm Milne, 26, husband of Mrs. Dorothy J. Milne, 197 Vernia st., and James Vincent Harsha, 27, husband of Mrs. Erma Violet Harsha, 449 First ave.

Seaman Robert Brown Knowles, 31, husband of Mrs. Helen Knowles, 831 Cadmus st., was graduated from the torpedoman's school.

Hugh R. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Jones, 422 West Seventh st., and James A. Wallover, husband of Mrs. Betty Wallover, Etruria st., have been awarded the silver wings of bomber pilots and have received appointments as flight officers at Frederick, Okla., army air field.

Promotions

Samuel Scragg, son of Alfred Scragg, 330 Sarah st., to sergeant with the army air force in Panama.

Florence Agnes Cushing, 384 Columbia st., Leetonia, to first lieutenant in the WACs, according to a war department announcement.

William E. Buckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Buckley of Pleasant Heights, to petty officer third class somewhere in the Mediterranean area. He has served overseas two months. His wife, Mrs. Lois Buckley, and daughter, Carol Sue, reside in LaCroft.

—New Assignments—

Pfc. Stephen Ralph Cooke, Jr., husband of Mrs. Opal Wagner Cooke, 901 Fairview st., and son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cooke, 653 Bradshaw ave., to overseas.

Seaman (1c) Loren E. Hooker, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Hooker, 1834 Michigan ave., to Camp Bradford, Norfolk, Va. He recently was graduated from the signal corps school at his former base and received his new rating.

—Furloughs—

Pfc. William "Bill" Bonnar of Camp Crowder, Mo., is spending a 16-day delayed-enroute with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bonnar of Hammondsville, and friends in Wellsville. He will report Saturday to his new station at Camp Reynolds.

Pvt. Kenneth E. Hall has concluded a 17-day delay-enroute with his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, and children, Charles, William and Robert, 925 Main st., Wellsville. He reported to Ft. Meade, Md.

Apprentice Seaman Clarence A. Logue, a medical student in the V-12 navy program at the University of West Virginia, Morgantown, has concluded a 10-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Logue, 301 Washington st., Newell.

D-DAY WAR DEAD. Pvt. Charles Manning (left), native of East Liverpool and son of Mrs. Hattie Manning, Washington st., Newell, and Sgt. George L. Stepanovich (right), son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stepanovich of the Scotch Settlement, Wellsville, were killed in action in France on D-day. Pvt. Manning was a member of the medical corps and Sgt. Stepanovich was in an air-borne glider division.

STIMSON HAILS SPEED OF CHERBOURG'S FALL

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 30—Secretary of War Stimson said Thursday that the fall of Cherbourg came with "commendable speed" despite the obstinate resistance and house-to-house fighting put up by the German defenders.

"Three American divisions took part in the final defeat of the Nazis in this area," the secretary said in his weekly news conference review of the war.

"They were the 79th division, under Maj. Gen. Ira Wyche; the Fourth division under Maj. Gen. Raymond O. Barton, and the Ninth division under Maj. Gen. Manton S. Eddy."

Diaz rounded the Cape of Good Hope in 1487.

CLOROX-CLEAN BATHROOMS
...a basic step in added home health protection!

If you like your bathroom spotlessly clean you'll like it better when it's Clorox-Clean, for Clorox disinfects... makes germ "hideouts"—possible infection centers—sanitary. It's easy to give your family this added health security by using Clorox in routine cleansing of tile, enamel, porcelain, linoleum, wood surfaces. Clorox is ultra-refined... it's free from caustic, an exclusive, patented quality-feature. Clorox has many personal as well as household uses. For greater home health protection simply follow directions on the label. There is only one Clorox... always ask for it by name.
